So the House refused to strike out the enacting clause of the bill.

On motion of Mr. Johnson, of A. A.,

The House reconsidered the 1st section of the bill.

On motion of Mr. Johnson, of A. A.,

Said bill was amended by inserting in the 1st section, 24th line, after the word "dollars," the words "and not exceeding ten thousand dollars."

Insert between the 24th and 25th lines in the same section, the words "and fifty cents;" and also, insert between the same lines in the same section the words "if above ten thousand dollars, six dollars."

On motion of Mr. Tall,

Said bill was further amended by inserting after the word "lease," in the 2nd section, 7th line the words "for more than five years."

Mr. Biser moved further to amend said section by striking out in the 7th line from the word "mortgage," to the word "on," in the tenth line inclusive "except the words one dollar;"

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Raymond moved to strike out the second section of the bill.

After debate thereon,

Mr. Calvert called for the previous question, that is, "Shall the main question be now put?" and
