

Mr. Patterson moved to suspend the rules to enable him to offer the following order:

Ordered, That all debate on the bill to provide for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to Cumberland shall cease at 9 o'clock this night, and any amendments to be proposed after that time shall be acted upon by the House without debate;

On the question being put,

"Will the House suspend the rule requiring two-thirds?"

It was resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Purnell,

The yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follows:
