

tax matters.

For these reasons, I have decided to veto House Bill 928.

Sincerely,
Marvin Mandel
Governor

House Bill No. 932 - Schools - Number of School Days
AN ACT concerning

State Board of Education - Number of School Days

FOR the purpose of providing the State Board of Education with the right to reduce or waive the minimum number of school days upon certain conditions; providing for State continuation of funding under certain circumstances; providing for a certain date that this Act shall expire; and renumbering where appropriate.

May 26, 1977

Honorable John Hanson Briscoe
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21404

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 932.

This bill, effective only for a one-year period, authorizes the State Board of Education to reduce or waive the required minimum number of school days. Such a reduction or waiver is dependent upon written application by a local board of education, and may be granted only in certain cases involving severe weather conditions or natural disaster.

Senate Bill 741, which was enacted by the General Assembly and signed by Lieutenant Governor Blair Lee III in his capacity as Acting Governor on April 12, 1977, achieves the same purpose as House Bill 932. In addition, the alternative remedies available to the State