House Bill No. 1033 - Unfair Trade Practices -
Consumers' Claims

AN ACT concerning

Unfair or Deceptive Trade Practices -
Preservation of Consumers' Claims and Defenses

FOR the purpose of changing consumers' rights to raise claims and defenses against certain creditors in certain consumer credit sales; providing that it is an unfair or deceptive trade practice not to include certain notices on certain consumer credit contracts; providing an exception; clarifying language; and providing for enforcement by the Consumer Protection Division of the Office of the Attorney General.

May 26, 1977

Honorable John Hanson Briscoe
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21404

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17, of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 1033.

This bill changes the right of a consumer to raise claims and defenses against creditors in certain consumer credit sales.

Senate Bill 1175, which was enacted by the General Assembly and signed by Lieutenant Governor Blair Lee III in his capacity as Acting Governor on May 17, 1977, accomplishes the same purpose.

Therefore, it is unnecessary for me to sign House
