

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

damage over extensive areas of the State which, according to the latest reports then available, was most severe in the City of Baltimore and Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Frederick, Prince George's and St. Mary's counties, I, Harry Hughes, Governor of Maryland, on September 7, 1979 proclaimed that a major disaster had occurred within those political subdivisions and ordered the execution of the State's emergency plan; and

WHEREAS, The Director of the Maryland Civil Defense and Disaster Preparedness Agency, on the basis of further information and analysis, has today advised me that Calvert, Charles and Howard counties also are among those in which the damage was substantial;

NOW, THEREFORE, By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of Maryland, including, but not limited to Article 16A of the Annotated Code of Maryland and the Maryland Disaster Assistance Plan adopted by Executive Order of September 26, 1975, I, HARRY HUGHES, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, do hereby amend Executive Order 01.01.1979.19, to

1. Proclaim that a major disaster, as defined in Article 16A, Section 3(e) of the Annotated Code of Maryland, has occurred in the City of Baltimore and in at least the following counties: Anne Arundel, Baltimore, CALVERT, CHARLES, Frederick, HOWARD, Prince George's and St. Mary's;

-----

EXECUTIVE ORDER OF SEPTEMBER 27, 1979

01.01.1979.22
ODD-EVEN PROGRAM RESCISSION

WHEREAS, On June 19, 1979, pursuant to a state of emergency previously declared to exist within the entire State of Maryland by reason of an acute shortage in usable energy resources, i.e., gasoline, I issued Executive Order 01.01.1979.11 whereby, with the subsequent approval of the Committee on Administrative, Executive and Legislative Review, I imposed, inter alia, an "odd-even" program with respect to the purchase from retail suppliers of gasoline in Maryland; and

WHEREAS, The increased availability of gasoline in Maryland has reached a point where, although demand remains greater than supply and thus requires continued