

(b) The jurisdiction of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission is hereby extended to include the area above described and [said] THE area shall be subject to all the rules and regulations of the commission and all provisions of law relating to [said] THE district, including taxes and other sums or charges levied by [said] THE commission in other parts of [said] THE district.

19-42. Same -- Piscataway and Brandywine election districts.

(a) The area herein described is hereby added to the Washington Suburban Sanitary District created by chapter 122 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1918: All that area in the Piscataway and Brandywine election districts of Prince George's County within the following described boundaries: Beginning for the same at a point on the existing boundary of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District, [said] THAT point being at the intersection of the centerline of Piney Creek with the centerline of Piscataway Creek and running thence in a generally easterly direction with and along the centerline of Piscataway Creek to a point east of, at right angles to and 200 feet distant from the east side of the New Branch Avenue or Route 5, thence in a generally southerly direction east of, parallel to and 200 feet distant from the east side of [said] THE New Branch Avenue or Route 5, to a point on the northwest right of way line of Crain Highway, U. S. Route 301, thence in a generally southeasterly direction, at right angles to the southbound lane of Crain Highway, U. S. Route 301, to a point east of, at right angles to and 200 feet distant from the east side of said Crain Highway, U. S. Route 301, thence in a generally southerly direction, east of, parallel to and 200 feet distant from the [said] east side of Crain Highway, U. S. Route 301, to Mattawoman Creek, the boundary between Prince George's and Charles counties, thence in a generally westerly and northerly direction with and along the boundary between Prince George's and Charles counties to the Maryland-Virginia boundary line, thence in a generally easterly and northerly direction with and along [said] THE Maryland-Virginia boundary line to the existing boundary of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District, thence in a generally easterly direction with and along the existing boundary of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District to the point of beginning.

(b) The [said] additional area hereinabove described shall be taken as and treated as if the [said] additional area was within the original boundaries of the sanitary district and is hereby brought within the jurisdiction of the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission and shall for all of the purposes set forth in [said] chapter 122 of the Acts of 1918 and amendments thereto be considered a part of the Washington Suburban Sanitary District except as hereinafter set forth.