

(ii) A monthly compilation of expenditures which were the basis for any fuel rate adjustment; and

(iii) An annual recapitulation of subparagraphs (i) and (ii) of this paragraph.

81.

(c) No person shall be excused from giving testimony or producing evidence before the Commission, upon proper order to do so, upon the ground that such testimony or evidence may tend to incriminate him or subject him to penalty or forfeiture; but no person shall be prosecuted, punished or subjected to penalty or forfeiture (except in case of [perjury] PERJURY committed by him in giving evidence before the Commission) for or on account of anything concerning which he gave evidence required by such order. The immunity conferred by this subsection shall extend only to natural persons and not to corporations.

91.

[(a)] Proceedings for review under § 90 of this article shall be instituted in the circuit court in equity for any county within which operations are carried on by the public service company involved. If more than one proceeding to review an order of the Commission is instituted, the court may, upon motion of either party, transfer the proceeding to any other court having jurisdiction. If a rehearing by the Commission is duly applied for, proceedings for judicial review may be filed after the service of the decision of the Commission denying the hearing. The Commission may be a party to such appeal.

Article 78A - Public Works

7.

(a) (1) The Board of Public Works shall in like manner supervise the expenditure of all sums appropriated for the acquisition of land, buildings, equipment, new construction and other capital expenditures, except in connection with State roads, bridges and highways, whether made through the medium of a budget bill, a supplementary appropriation bill or a State bond issue bill, and all contracts for the expenditure of sums so appropriated shall be subject to the approval of the Board before they are executed, after review by the Secretary of General Services.

[(ii)] (2) As of the date on which the new 500 bed replacement facility authorized jointly in [H.B. 651/S.B. 351 and H.B. 713/S.B. 337] CHAPTERS 693 AND 519 OF THE ACTS OF 1980 is open and accepting prisoners, the Board may not approve any contract for the construction or renovation of any prison facilities for the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services in the Jessup area of Anne Arundel and Howard counties that would provide for more than 3,400 beds in that area, computed as follows:
