

The yeas and nays were demanded, and resulted as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Berry, Sp'r.	Ensor,	Harris, of Fr.,
Dent,	Harrison,	Stockdale,
Harris, St. Mary's	Dougherty,	Hugg,
Westcott,	Gunby,	Alexander,
Bond,	Turner,	Findlay,
Magruder,	Phelps,	Thomas,
Carrico,	McIntire,	Lowe,
Davis, of Charles,	Morton,	Little,
Johnson, Balt. co.	McCollister,	Everhart,
Jerome,	Kemp,	Waters—32.
Given,	Duncan,

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Walton,	Smith,	Christopher,
Nutwell,	Purnell,	Taylor,
Pearce,	Biggs,	Mathews,
Kerr,	Johnson, of Fr.,	Dunlop,
Wright,	Price,	White,
Leckie,	Warner,	Chamberlain,
Bowie, Sr.,	Wolf,	Donaldson—21.

So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Bond proposed the following:

Section 11, after the word "criminal" in the 9th line, insert:

"But it shall not be lawful for any sheriff or his deputy to summon as talesman, any person who was not upon the list selected by the county commissioners, provided there are a sufficient number of such persons present at or near the county seat;

Which was adopted.

Mr. Johnson, of Baltimore county, proposed the following:

Insert after the word "of," in the 9th line, sub-section 1, "not less than one hundred and fifty or more than;"

Which was adopted.

Mr. Alexander proposed the following:

Strike out the words "commissioners," in the 7th and 8th line, of the 1st section, and insert: "judge of the circuit court, the sheriff of the county and the foreman of the grand jury, acting at the preceding session of the circuit court, or any two them;"

Mr. Findlay moved to adjourn;