So the amendment was rejected.

Mr. Smyth proposed the following:

"Section 11. And be it enacted, That the amount to be so paid, under the warrant of the Comptroller, by the Treasurer, to the said Inspector General and Inspectors, and for any other expenses which may accrue under this act, shall not exceed the amount of money to the credit of the Grain Inspection Fund, as provided by law; and if there shall not be in the treasury, to the credit of said Grain Inspection Fund, a sufficient sum, after paying the expenses incurred under this act, to pay in full the said salaries of the said Inspector General and Inspectors, then a rateable deduction shall be made between the said Inspector General and said Inspectors;"

Which was adopted.

Mr. Turner proposed the following:

"Section 12. And be it enacted, That nothing contained in this article shall be construed to take away from any owner of grain the right, by written order to his agent or consignee, desiring him to sell without inspection, to sell and deliver the same without complying with the provisions of this article;"
