

Pending its second reading,

The amendment proposed by Mr. Magruder as a substitute for the bill, (see page 264,) was adopted.

Mr. Mathews proposed the following amendment:

“Section 4. And be it enacted, That section 75, of said article, be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following be substituted in lieu thereof:

“75. The judge of any court in which any cause may be pending, may order a removal of the record of proceedings, at any time before trial, whenever sufficient cause may be shewn therefor, to the satisfaction of the judge to whom application therefor may be made;”

Which was adopted.

Mr. Magruder proposed the following amendments:

Section 3, strike out all after the word “that,” in the 1st line, to the end of the 2nd line, and insert, “Section 74 of said article be repealed and the following section enacted as a substitute therefor;”

Add the following section:

“Section 5. That this act shall take effect from the day of its passage;”

Which were adopted.

The bill, as amended, was then, by special order, three-fourth concurring, read the third time, and passed by yeas and nays, as follow:
