The Honorable, the Speaker, having resumed the Chair;

Mr. Hammond, of Howard, submitted the following message:

By the House of Delegates,

February 5, 1862.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

We have concurred in the first amendment proposed by your Honorable Body, to the bill incorporating Rock Hill Institute, but propose an amendment to the second amendment offered by you, and respectfully ask your concurrence in the amendment so proposed by us.

By order,

T. SNOWDEN THOMAS,

Chief Clerk.

Which was read, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

The bill entitled, An act to prohibit the sale or giving of spirituous liquors and intoxicating drinks in this State, to soldiers in the service of the United States;

Was considered; and

Pending its second reading,

Mr. Mathews proposed the following as a substitute for the bill:

“A bill entitled, An act to prohibit the sale of spirituous liquors and intoxicating drinks in this State, to soldiers.”

“Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful for any person in this State
