Approved May 29, 1984.

CHAPTER 771

(House Bill 1092)

AN ACT concerning

Sales and Use Taxes - Wall-to-Wall Carpeting

FOR the purpose of providing that wall-to-wall carpeting retains its character as tangible personal property upon installation, without regard to the purpose, method, or permanency of its annexation for purposes of the Retail Sales Act and the Use Tax Act, and providing under certain circumstances for refunds of tax to vendors who have purchased the carpeting before the effective date of this Act; and generally relating to sales and use taxes and wall-to-wall carpeting.
