

transfer taxes and to the rate of tax for certain public utility bonds.

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the reference to "recordation tax collected" is substituted for the former reference to "proceeds from the sale of said stamps ... shall be accounted for" to clarify the current practice since the reference to the sale of stamps is obsolete.

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the language "shall be paid to the governing body of the county" is substituted for the former phrase "shall be accounted for and paid over to the county commissioners of the county or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore", for clarity.

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the phrase "in which the instrument of writing is recorded" is substituted for the former phrase "in which the tax is collected", for clarity.

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the former reference to payment of "the recordation charges herein provided" is deleted as unnecessary since there are no charges under this title.

In subsection (b) of this section, the former references to "the City of Baltimore" and "city" are deleted as included in the defined term "county".

Also in subsection (b) of this section, the defined term "instrument of writing" is substituted for the former phrases "instrument conveying title to or creating liens or encumbrances" and "such instrument", for clarity.

In subsection (b)(1) of this section, the words "real and personal" are deleted as included in the defined term "property".

Also in subsection (b)(1) of this section, the former references to property "situated ... in the City of Baltimore and one or more counties" and "in the city and one or more counties" are deleted as included in the reference to property "located in 2 or more counties".

In subsection (b)(2) of this section, the former phrase "and the revenue therefrom shall be accounted for and paid to each such county or city" is deleted in light of the provisions of subsection (a) of this section.

In subsection (b)(2)(i) of this section, the former