

(b) No person shall accomplish or seek to accomplish any of the things prohibited by [subparagraph (4)] SUBSECTION (A)(4) of this section, whether with or without the connivance or consent of the public service company or any of its personnel.

Article 78B - Racing Commission

2.

(e) The Governor, with the advice and consent of the Senate, at the time of making and announcing the appointment of commissioners, as well as in the commission issued to each of them, shall designate the length of the term for which the commissioner is being appointed, [which] AND WHICH COMMISSIONER shall be the chairman of the Commission.

5.

(b) Except for stewards and harness judges, the officials at any race meeting, as this term is customarily understood in racing, including by way of enumeration only and not in [limitation] LIMITATION, placing judges, patrol judges, clerks of the scales, starters and assistants, handicapper, timer, paddock judge, veterinarian attached to the paddock, racing secretary and clerk of the course shall be employed and paid by the licensee conducting the race meeting. There shall be three stewards at every race meeting conducted by any licensee under the provisions of §§ 7 and 15 of this article. There shall be three harness judges at every race meeting conducted by any licensee under the provisions of § 17 of this article. All stewards and harness judges shall be appointed by the Commission upon recommendation of the executive director. The racing associations and organizations representing the horsemen may make recommendations of qualified persons for the Commission's and executive director's consideration for appointment as stewards or harness judges.

7.

(f) (3) The award of any racing days by the Commission under this subsection [(f)] constitutes a license of these days to the tracks to which the days are awarded and does not provide any right of ownership in the days to any track or any other person.

11.

(g) (1) [For calendar year 1978 and all subsequent calendar years, the Thoroughbred Racing Board] THE MARYLAND RACING COMMISSION may authorize any licensee under Section 7 of this article to run on any day races involving multiple betting for two or more horses.

Article 81 - Revenue and Taxes