It is the intent of the General Assembly that no transfer of governance of the Highland Health Psychiatric Unit be consummated until the budget committees review the related financial arrangement. The committees shall have 45 days to review and consider it. It is the further intent that, upon closure or transfer of governance of the Highland Health Psychiatric Unit, all positions at that unit be abolished. It is the further intent that no positions be transferred from Highland to any other facility or program during F.Y. 1990.
