DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES ADMINISTRATION

It is the intent of the General Assembly that, contingent upon the failure of SB 686 and HB 1084, any and all proceeds from the sale of Great Oaks and Henryton property and equipment be credited by the Comptroller to a separate escrow account, of which only the annual interest would be distributed to the Waiting List Equity Fund (WLEF) to be used by the Developmental Disabilities Administration for the purpose of reducing the number of persons waiting for services.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that any and all proceeds from the sale of Great Oaks and Henryton property and equipment be placed in the Waiting List Equity Fund (WLEF) for ultimate use by the Developmental Disabilities Administration to reduce the number of individuals waiting for services.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that, upon closure of the Great Oaks facility June 30, 1996, any individuals remaining without community placement not be relocated to another institution against their will. To the
