

government" is substituted for the former reference to a "board, bureau, commission, department or other agency" for brevity. See General Revisor's Note to this article.

Also in subsection (a) of this section, the defined term "correctional facilit[y]" is substituted for the former reference to "penal and reformatory institutions" for consistency throughout this article. See General Revisor's Note to this article.

In subsection (d) of this section, the reference to the "State" budget is added to state expressly that which only was implied in the former law, i.e., the Division's funds are appropriated in the State budget.

Defined terms: "Correctional facility" § 1-101
"Division" § 3-101

3-222. EXPENSES.

THE EXPENSES RELATING TO GUARDING, LODGING, FEEDING, CLOTHING, AND CARING FOR AN INMATE WHO HAS BEEN SENTENCED TO THE JURISDICTION OF THE DIVISION OF CORRECTION MAY NOT BE ASSESSED AGAINST, BILLED TO, OR PAID BY A COUNTY.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is derived without substantive change from the third sentence of former Art. 27, § 76.

The reference to an inmate who is sentenced to "the jurisdiction of the Division of Correction" is substituted for the former reference to an inmate who is sentenced to "any State institution" for consistency with § 9-103 of this article.

The reference to the county "where such person was indicted" is deleted for accuracy. Allegations that an individual has committed a crime may be set forth in an information, a citation, or a statement of charges as well as an indictment. See Md. Rule 4-102. This deletion also clarifies that no county may be charged for the specified expenses, regardless of where the charging document was filed. These types of expenses are paid by the State, as set forth in the annual State budget.

The former phrase "irrespective of whether or not the judgement, upon which such sentence is imposed, is thereafter reversed" is deleted as surplusage.

The reference to the defined term "county" is substituted for the former reference to "the county commissioners of the county ... or the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore" for brevity. See § 1-101 of this article for the definition of "county".

Defined terms: "County" § 1-101
"Inmate" § 1-101
"State correctional facility" § 1-101
