

In subsection (c)(2) of this section, the reference to the Bertillon "method" is added to state expressly that which was formerly only implied in the reference to "Bertillon".

In subsections (d)(1), (e)(5) and (12), (f)(1) and (2), and the introductory language of (e) of this section, the references to "unit" and "units" are substituted for the former references to "agency" and "agencies", respectively, for consistency throughout this article. See General Revisor's Note to this article.

In subsection (d)(1)(ii) of this section, the reference to a request "of the Institution" is added to state expressly that which was formerly only implied in the law, i.e., the Patuxent Institution is responsible for making the request for information.

In subsections (e)(5), (6)(ii), (8), and (12) and (f) of this section, the references to the "record[s], report[s], or" information are added to state expressly that which was formerly only implied in the references to "information" and for consistency with the introductory language of subsection (e) of this section.

In subsection (e)(6) of this section, the former reference to a "district, or territory of the United States" is deleted as unnecessary in light of the definition of "state" in § 1-101 of this article.

The Correctional Services Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that subsection (e)(6) of this section allows the Patuxent Institution to disclose an inmate's record to a state or federal correctional official or probation officer. The General Assembly may wish to expand the scope of this provision to allow the same type of disclosure to a local correctional official or probation officer. This change would be consistent with subsection (e)(5) of this section, which allows the Patuxent Institution to disclose an inmate's record to a local law enforcement officer under certain circumstances.

In subsection (e)(7) of this section, the former reference to the Attorney General "of Maryland" is deleted as implicit in the reference to "the Attorney General".

In subsection (e)(8) of this section, the reference to the Inmate Grievance "Office" is substituted for the former obsolete reference to the Inmate Grievance "Commission". See Ch. 251, Acts of 1991.

In subsection (e)(9) of this section, the reference to the Division of "Rehabilitation Services" is substituted for the former obsolete reference to the Division of "Vocational Rehabilitation". See Ch. 42, Acts of 1992.

In subsection (e)(10) of this section, the former reference to disclosing medical records "when [they] are required" is deleted as implicit in the reference to disclosing medical records "to the extent necessary to ensure proper medical treatment".
