

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 27, § 594C-1.

In the introductory language of subsection (a)(1) of this section, the former reference to all law enforcement officers "in this State" is deleted as implicit.

In the introductory language of subsection (a)(2) of this section, the reference to suffering from an "illness" is substituted for the former reference to an "affliction" for consistency with language used in subsections (a)(1)(i) and (b) of this section.

The Criminal Procedure Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that subsection (b) of this section, which authorizes persons with specified conditions to carry medical alert devices, may be unnecessary. The Committee believes that absent this provision the affected persons would still be able to carry the specified devices. Thus, the purpose of this provision is unclear.

Defined term: "Person" § 1-101

SUBTITLE 2. WARRANTLESS ARRESTS.

2-201. EFFECT OF SUBTITLE.

(A) OTHER RIGHTS OF ARREST.

THIS SUBTITLE DOES NOT IMPAIR A RIGHT OF ARREST OTHERWISE EXISTING UNDER THE CODE.

(B) RIGHT TO RECEIVE CITATIONS.

THIS SUBTITLE DOES NOT DEPRIVE A PERSON OF THE RIGHT TO RECEIVE A CITATION FOR:

- (1) A TRAFFIC VIOLATION AS PROVIDED IN THE MARYLAND VEHICLE LAW; OR
- (2) A CRIMINAL VIOLATION AS PROVIDED BY LAW OR THE MARYLAND RULES.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language derived without substantive change from former Art. 27, § 594B(k) and (l).

In subsection (a) and the introductory language of subsection (b) of this section, the references to this "subtitle" are substituted for the former references to this "section". This subtitle is derived from parts of former Art. 27, § 594B; other parts of the former section are revised in Subtitle 1 of this title. However, the provisions on arrests without a warrant are included in this subtitle. Former § 594B(k) and (l) seemed to relate to these provisions on arrests without a warrant and are therefore included in this subtitle. No substantive change is intended.
