

In subsection (f)(2) of this section, the reference to a "prosecution for an indictable crime" is substituted for former references to "[a] person who may commit any indictable offense" being "presented indicted, tried and convicted". In addition, the reference to a "prosecution" is substituted for the former reference to "arrest" and "presentment, indictment and trial", for brevity.

In subsection (f)(3) of this section, the former reference to a county "or city" where a commissioner is located is deleted as included in the reference to "county".

In subsection (g)(1) of this section, the former provision that grants a county "jurisdiction to charge, present, indict, try, convict and sentence" is deleted as implicit in the provision that allows "[a] prosecution for a crime" to be brought in a county.

In subsection (g)(1)(i) of this section, the reference to "the boundary between counties" is substituted for the former reference to "at or on the boundary of the county wherein the accused is being tried" for brevity.

Also in subsection (g)(1)(i) of this section, the former reference to a "divisional line" is deleted as included in the reference to a "boundary".

The first clause of former Art. 27, § 586, which stated that "[t]he District Court sitting in each district may hear and determine criminal cases within its jurisdiction if the acts charged occurred within the district" is deleted as unnecessary in light of Title 4 of the Courts Article, which concerns jurisdiction of the District Court.

The Criminal Procedure Article Review Committee notes, for consideration by the General Assembly, that Art. 75, § 82, which specifies the jurisdiction of a county lying on a navigable river, may conflict with subsection (d) of this section. Under Art. 75, § 82, apparently there are no navigable waters outside of all counties.
