

2. dispose of the balance as requested by the participant and as approved by the Administrator.

(5) A participant who knowingly violates a regulation adopted under this section:

- (i) is subject to removal from the program;
- (ii) after an administrative hearing, is subject to cancellation of any earned diminution of the inmate's term of confinement; and
- (iii) is subject to the provisions of § 11-726 of this subtitle.

[(e)] (F) (1) A court may require an individual who is convicted of a crime to satisfy a fine or court costs by participating in a work program established under the jurisdiction of the Division of Parole and Probation.

(2) An individual who participates in the work program shall receive credit of at least the federal minimum wage per hour toward the fine and court costs.

[(f) (1) (i) In this subsection, "farm labor" means agricultural work.

(ii) "Farm labor" includes:

- 1. the threshing or harvesting of crops;
- 2. the production of any agricultural, horticultural, vegetable, or fruit product of the soil, livestock, meats, marine food products, eggs, dairy products, wool, nuts, honey, and every product of farm, forest, garden, orchard, or water; and
- 3. any services that are generally regarded as incidental to and connected with farms, dairies, or the seafood industry.

(2) The Administrator may assign able-bodied male inmates in a local correctional facility to perform farm labor on the following terms and conditions:

(i) the assignment may be made only after a person that desires to employ farm labor submits a written request that shows to the satisfaction of the Administrator that farm labor is not otherwise obtainable;

(ii) the person requesting the farm labor shall pay the costs incident to an assignment to farm labor, including the cost of transportation of the inmates to and from the local correctional facility, a reasonable per diem wage for an inmate performing farm labor, and the cost of properly guarding an inmate while performing farm labor;

(iii) the Administrator may require proof of financial responsibility, including a payment in advance;

(iv) the person requesting the farm labor shall assume any liability for an injury to an inmate while being transported to or from a local correctional facility or while performing farm labor;