(e) Following the public hearing, the legislative body may proceed to enact the resolution, in accordance with the usual requirements and practices applicable to its legislative enactments. The resolution shall not become effective until at least forty-five (45) days following its final enactment.

(l) If only one petition for a referendum is filed and if a majority of the persons voting on the question in that referendum shall vote in favor of the proposal for change, the change shall become effective as proposed on the fourteenth day following the referendum. If two petitions for referendum are filed, the votes cast for the two referenda shall be tabulated separately, so as to show individually the tabulation of votes cast in the municipal corporation and in the area to be annexed. If in both tabulations, each being reckoned separately, a majority of the persons voting on the question shall vote in favor of the proposal for change, the change shall become effective as proposed on the fourteenth day following the referendum. In the event there are two referenda, unless there is such a favorable majority in both tabulations, reckoned separately, the proposal for change shall be void and of no further effect whatsoever.

(p) The chief executive and administrative officer of a municipal corporation which has enlarged its corporate boundaries under the provisions of this section shall promptly [register] ~~SEND THE INFORMATION ABOUT ANNEXATION RESOLUTIONS WITH~~ the new boundaries [with] TO the clerk or similar official thereof, [with] TO the clerk of the court in the county or counties in which the municipal corporation is located, [with] TO the Department of Legislative Services as provided in § 9A of this article, and for those municipalities lying within the regional district, [with] TO the Maryland-National Capital Park and Planning Commission. Each such official shall hold the [registration of] ~~INFORMATION ABOUT ANNEXATION RESOLUTION WITH THE NEW~~ boundaries on record and shall make it available for public inspection during all normal business hours.
