

compensated by the entity requesting the appointment on whatever terms are contracted.

Also in item (8) of this subsection, the reference to a special policeman who is appointed to maintain order on "or" protect property is substituted for the former reference to a special policeman who is appointed to maintain order "and" protect property for clarity.

In item (12) of this subsection, the reference to a member of the Natural Resources Police "Force" is added to use the official name of the entity. For provisions on the Natural Resources Police Force, see NR §§ 1-201 through 1-210.

In item (13) of this subsection, the reference to an "authorized employee" is substituted for the former reference to a "member" of the Investigative Services Unit of the Comptroller's Office to conform to terminology used elsewhere in the revised Code. See TG § 2-107 for provisions on the Investigative Services Unit.

Former Art. 27, § 594B(g)(17), which defined "police officer" in part to mean "[s]ubject to subsections (i) and (l)(7) of this section, the State Fire Marshal or a full-time investigative and inspector assistant of the Office of the State Fire Marshal", is deleted to avoid confusion and needless cross-references. The authority of the State Fire Marshal and full-time investigative and inspection assistants to make specified arrests is fully set forth in § 2-208 of this title and is unchanged from the former law. No substantive change is intended.
