

In subsection (a)(3)(iii) of this section, the former word "history" is deleted as unnecessary in light of the word "previous".

In subsection (b) of this section, the phrase "if the Commission finds that the applicant or licensee is not fit" is added to state expressly that which only was implied in the former law; i.e., the act that the Commission takes before denying, suspending, or revoking a license is a determination that the individual is not physically capable of boxing.

In subsection (c)(2) of this section, the phrase "defined under Article 27, § 277 of the Code or other substance that the Commission prohibits by regulation" is substituted for the former phrase "in accordance with the regulations adopted by the Commission" to avoid ambiguity and to conform to the practice of the Commission.

In the introductory language of subsection (d)(1) of this section, the reference to the "hearing provisions of § 4-311 of this subtitle" is added to conform to other subsections of this section and to comparable sections in other titles of this article.

Also the introductory language of subsection (d)(1) of this section, the reference to the duty of the Commission to "revoke" a license is substituted for the former references that a person "forfeit" a license and that the license be "cancelled and declared void" by the Commission. This revision conforms to the language used in similar sections in this and other revised articles of the Code. Similarly in this subsection, the reference to the power of the Commission to deny a promoter license is substituted for the former requirement that a person "[s]hall be disqualified from receiving any new license ..." and "shall not ... be entitled to receive another ... license".

Also the introductory language of subsection (d)(1) of this section, the references to an "applicant" for a promoter license and a "licensee" are substituted for the former words "person, club, corporation or association" for accuracy since promoters are the persons who pay the boxing and wrestling tax. See COMAR 09.14.02.02E(2).

In subsection (d)(1)(ii) of this section, the former words "conduct" and "give" are deleted in light of the word "holds".

Also in subsection (d)(1)(ii) of this section, the former word "sham" is deleted in light of the word "fake".

In subsection (d)(2)(i) of this section, the words "impose a penalty of $500" are substituted for the former words "forfeit to the State $500 which may be recovered by the Attorney General in the name of the State in the same manner as other penalties are by law recovered" for brevity and to conform to language used in similar provisions in other revised articles of the Code.
