Gentlemen of the House of Delegates,

We dissent from your message proposing a joint committee to visit the penitentiary. We have delayed answering it, under an impression that we might be able to comply with your wishes.

But we find, from the great press of important business before us, that it will be improper to dispense with the attendance of any of our members who are now at the seat of government, and we must therefore decline your invitation at this late period of the session.

By order,

Wm. Kilty, Clk.
