

"Will the Senate adopt said preamble and order?"

The yeas and nays were asked for, and on taking them, they appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Mr. Brown,—1.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Thomas, (Prest.)

Beckett,

Goldsborough,

Hambleton,

Hilleary,

Purnell,

Ricaud,

Schley,

Wright,—9.

So it was determined in the negative.

Mr. Brown presented the report of the Trustees of the Franklin Academy,

Which was read and referred to the consideration of the House of Delegates.

The Senate adjourned until Monday morning ten o'clock.

MONDAY, January 23, 1837.

The Senate met. Present the same Senators as on Saturday. The proceedings of Saturday were read.

The report of the Trustees of the Franklin Academy, referred on Saturday to the consideration of the house of delegates, was sent to the house of delegates.

The President laid before the Senate, a letter from John McKenney, esquire, a member elect of the council, communicating his acceptance of the appointment,

Which was read and referred to the consideration of the house of delegates.

Mr. Brown presented the petition of sundry citizens of Baltimore county, counter to the petition heretofore presented, in regard to a certain road in said county,

Which was read and referred to Messrs. Brown, Jones and Hilleary.

The bill entitled, an act to repeal so much of the act to limit and define the jurisdiction of justices of the peace, passed at December session 1834, as relates to Baltimore county, was read the third time and rejected.

On motion of Mr. Ricaud,
