

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table:

The amendments proposed by the Senate to the bill, reported by Mr. Tuck, from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, entitled, and act for the benefit of the infant children of Lilius M. Jones, late of Charles county, deceased, was taken up for consideration;

Mr. Carpenter, moved that said amendment be rejected, Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Carpenter, then submitted the following message, which was read and assented to;

By the House of Delegates,
February 13, 1837.

Gentlemen of the Senate,

We return to you and respectfully request that you reconsider your vote upon the second section of the bill, entitled, an act for the benefit of the infant children of Lilius M. Jones, late of Charles county, deceased, and pass the same;

By order,

G. G. Brewer, Clk.

The report submitted by Mr. Iglehart, chairman of the committee on claims, upon the memorial of B. S. Pigman, Esqr., praying compensation for services therein mentioned, was taken up for consideration, read the second time, the report concurred in, and the resolution therein contained assented to;

The report submitted by Mr. Iglehart, chairman of the committee on claims, upon the pay roll of Isaac Allen, of Washington county, captain of the Williamsport Rifle company, praying to be compensated for services rendered in the canal riots in 1834, was taken up for consideration, the report concurred in, and the resolution therein contained assented to;

The hour having arrived for taking up the order of the day;

The house resumed the unfinished order of Friday, being the bill reported by Mr. Ford, chairman of the committee on the constitution, entitled, an act to amend the constitution and form of government of the State of Maryland;

The house again resolved itself into a committee of the whole house upon said bill, and after some time spent in committee, the speaker resumed the chair, and Mr. Carpenter, the chairman, reported that the said committee had in obedience to order, again had the said bill under consi-
