BY THE SENATE,

February 5th, 1864.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates:

We have received your message proposing to go into an election for police commissioner for the city of Baltimore and for directors for the various banks, on Wednesday evening the 10th, at 8 o'clock, P. M., and concur therein,

By order,

C. HARWOOD,

Secretary.

Which was read, assented to and sent to the House of Delegates.

The hour having arrived for considering the Order of the Day,

The President announced the bill entitled, "An Act for the better protection of the citizens of this State from the ravages of small pox ;"

Mr. Stirling submitted the following amendment :

Add to section 7, "and no public school Trustee or Commissioner shall grant a permit to any child to enter any public school without such certificate under the same penalty ;"

Which was read and adopted.

The bill was then read the second time and ordered to be engrossed for a third reading: and,
