

Amendments proposed in committee of the whole, to the bill,
Entitled,

A supplement to an act to limit the time for which Tobacco Inspectors shall continue to hold their offices, passed December session, 1836, chap. 122.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of June next, any person who shall have been, or who may hereafter be appointed a lottery commissioner, commissioner of insolvent debtors, for Baltimore county, wood corder, flour inspector, lumber inspector, gauger of casks, and inspector of domestic distilled spirits, inspector of ground black oak bark, inspector of fish, inspector of sole leather, inspector of hides, inspector of lime, inspector of plaster, or weigher of hay and straw, and who shall have served or may hereafter serve, in either of said offices, for the term of five years successively, shall not be eligible to said office again for the space of one year, provided nothing herein is meant or intended to prohibit the Governor and Council, or Senate, as the case may be, from appointing said officers annually; as heretofore, or extend their terms of office for a longer period than that now provided by law.

Strike out all after the enacting clause, and insert the following:—

“That the State Tobacco Inspectors, at the State Warehouses, shall be appointed annually on or before the first day of April, and no inspector after the passage of this act shall be eligible to said office more than five years consecutively.

And be it enacted, That the act passed at December session, 1835, ch. 122, entitled, an act to limit the time for which Tobacco Inspectors shall continue to hold their offices, be and the same is hereby repealed.”
