

REPORT:

That from the best information they have been able to obtain on the subject, have come to the conclusion that a chandelier with eight lamps, and six bracket lamps, would be the most suitable both for ornament and utility, and they recommend that the same be ordered, and that the committee on claims be authorised to allow such sum for the same as may seem just and proper.

Which was read the first and by special order the second time and concurred in.

Mr. Sollers, seconded by two other members that voted in the majority, moved to reconsider the vote of the house upon the message submitted by Mr. Kerr, this morning concurring in the message from the seante proposing a conference on the subject of a deputation to the Legislature of Pennsylvania,

Resolved in the affirmative.

Mr. Alexander, then moved to amend said message, by enlarging the committee to five;

Resolved in the affirmative.

The Speaker thereupon appointed Messrs. Maulsby, and Sollers, on said committee.

The said message was then read as amended, and as entered to.

On motion Mr. Geyer,

The house adjourned until to-morrow morning ten o'clock.

SATURDAY, January 13th, 1838.

The House met. Present the same members as on yesterday, The proceedings of yesterday were read.

The bill entitled a further supplement to an act, entitled, an act for the preservation and repair of that part of the United States road within the limits of the State of Maryland,—also,

The bill entitled an act to divorce Lydia Moore from her husband John Moore,—also,

The bill entitled an act to divorce Elijah Brittingham, of Worcester county, from his wife Juliann Brittingham,—also,

The bill entitled an act to define the duties of sheriffs, coroners, or elisors, so far as relates to Baltimore county,—also,

The bill entitled an act to divorce Mary Corner, of Dorchester county, from her husband Solomon Corner,—also,

The bill entitled an act to authorise William Penn to bring into this State a negro slave for life,—also,

The bill entitled an additional supplement to the act, entitled, an act for the relief of the poor of St. Mary's county,—also,

The bill entitled an act to authorise John Melburn to bring into this State, negro man Nace, a slave for life,—also,

The resolution directing the treasurer of the western shore to