AMERICAN HOUSE,

Main Street, Annapolis, WEYBURN & SON.

Everybody knows that the American House is the best in the city. Everybody knows that you can get your meals there at any hour of the day.

Everybody knows that at the American House you can get any thing you want to refresh the inner man—all served up in the very best style.

Everybody knows that the accommodations of the American House are as good as any in the city.

Everybody knows that the American House is the cheapest in city.

city. Let everybody then come.

NEVER GIVE LESS .- A gentleman anxious to hear a celebrated West-end preacher, found himself in such a crowd that to get a seat seemed impossible. He watched the pew-opener's eyes looking very inquiringly at the hands of the applicants for seats, and he thought to himself, "Oh, oh, a fee is expected !" So taking out half-acrown, he held it most invitingly between his two fingers, and it was not long before it had the desired effect. He was quietly beckoned into a seat, whereupon he slipped a half-penny into the woman's hand. Presently when the singing commenced, she came bustling round to him with a hymn-book, whispering as she handed it to him, "You made a mistake, sir, you only gave me a half-penny." "All right," he answered, "I never give SYMPATHY FROM SWEEDEN .- I cannot but believe, with you, that this war is providential, and, after its worst is done, its woes are past, will serve as a baptism for a new and higher life. A baptism of blood, true, and terrible it is; but the grace of God will turn the very wounds, to eyes which see his will, to fountains of sympathy and charity. God bless America! My heart is there now more than ever; and were I more young I would be there soul and body, and mix among those who take care of the sick and wounded. But I am old, and shall hardly ever more cross the Atlantic excpt with my warm wishes. FREDERICKA BREMER.
