

The Sun's Election Recommendations

The Sun makes the following recommendations in Tuesday's general election. The backgrounds of the various issues and contests have previously been set forth in surveys in our news columns, and the reasons for our recommendations have been explained in editorials. In some races for the State Legislature we stop short of endorsing a full slate. These lists may be clipped from the paper and taken into the voting booth. They will be repeated in The Evening Sun tomorrow and in The Sun on Tuesday morning.
