

McKeldins Dine At White House With President

Governor and Mrs. Theodore R. McKeldin were ranking guests at an informal dinner party given by President and Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower for their house guest, Field Marshall Viscount Bernard L. Montgomery, in the White House on Wednesday evening.

The President entertained his guests for a brief period in his library before they assembled in the State Dining Room. Mrs. McKeldin was escorted to the table by the President, while Mrs. Eisenhower took the arm of the Governor.

Mrs. McKeldin declares that the Eisenhowers are exceptionally gracious hosts, and that everyone present had a most enjoyable evening.

Six other couples were also present.
