

Welcome Tea Will Honor

Mrs. Eisenhower's Visit

A service welcome will be accorded Mrs. Dwight D. Eisenhower tomorrow when the President's wife comes to Annapolis to be guest of honor at a tea to be given by the Naval Academy Women's Club at 2:30 P. M. in the Commissioned Officers' Mess. Numbered among the members of the club who will meet Mrs. Eisenhower will be wives and members of the immediate families of officers of the Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force as well as civilian instructors attached to the Naval Academy.

Receiving with the guest of honor Mrs. Eisenhower and Mrs. Claud M. Fraleigh, president of the club, will be the honorary president of the club, Mrs. C. Turner Joy, wife of Vice Admiral Joy, superintendent of the academy, and Mrs. Theodore R. McKeldin, wife of the governor and an honorary member of the club. Those attending will be introduced by Pouring and assisting during the afternoon will be Mrs. Charles A. Mrs. Russell S. Callow, program chairman.

Buchanan, wife of Capt. Buchanan, commandant of midshipmen; Mrs. Joseph K. Taussig, Jr., Mrs. Bryson Bruce, Mrs. Henry Adams, Mrs. David C. Holly, Mrs. James W. Judy, Mrs. William A. Farrell, Mrs. Harry A. Baldrige, Mrs. William A. P. Martin, Mrs. Frank J. Coulter, Mrs. Callow, Mrs. Charles D. Mize and Mrs. Theophilus H. Moore.

Also Mrs. William L. Klich, Mrs. Spencer E. Dickinson, Mrs. Myron W. Hutchinson, Jr., Mrs. Raymond F. Frelsen, Mrs. Thomas Shine, Mrs. Samuel K. Groseclose, Mrs. William L. Darnall, Mrs. Fred W. Walton, Mrs. Blake B. Booth, Mrs. Clarkson J. Bright, Mrs. John R. Palmer, Mrs. Douglas R. Lacey and Mrs. Hector de Zay-as.