

Snoops Renovations

MHS Subject File "Historic Houses-Government House"

The Sun 02/09/1987

Chuck Fawley and Jody Albright, oversee and manage the mansion
Albright former Director of Cultural and Social Affairs for Schaefer
Fawley former driver of Schaefer

The Sun 07/14/1987

Making Changes in the GH Trust
Mrs. Snoops concerned about the conflict of interest having the entire trust dominated by the MHS gallery committee
Uncertainty about her plans for the restored rooms
Quotes by ecp

Evening Sun 07/30/1987

Mansion to get help for physically challenged visitors
Addition of an Elevator and Ramp

Evening Sun 08/14/1987

Soliciting Donations for GH furnishings
"Adopt-A-Piece of Maryland Living" program

The Sun 03/13/1988

Call to change house name

The Sun 03/20/1988

Call to change the name of Government House to Mansion
Take the MHS out of the oversight committee
Change from the Hughes plan to the Snoops plan

Washington Post 03/01/1991

Mrs. Snoops threatens to take out new things she put in (including the fountain) due to critics
Installed a painted screen door, Like those in Baltimore
"Baltimore equivalent of a lawn jockey"

The Sun 03/01/1991

Snoops threatens to empty the mansion of donated items
Vows to return the seedy pre-Schaefer appearance of the mansion

The Sun 7/25/88
7/14/88

Hilda Mae Noone Snoops Bio
The Sun 01/22/1987

Born on September 6, 1924

Father=Edward Noone, electrician

Mother=Minnie Noone, housewife

Grew up in West Baltimore

Attended Baltimore City Public Schools: PS86, Gwynns Falls Junior High

1942 Graduate of Western High School

Athletic, basketball, ice skating, bowling

Attended Church Home and Hospital School of Nursing

Worked for Baltimore City Health Department

Married Charles Snoops, draftsman, in 1947

Children:

Dorothy Levi, Director of Pharmacy at Liberty Medical Center, Lawrence,
VP of Joseph M. Zimmer, Inc.,

Craig, Supermarket manager

Divorced in 1962

Nurse at Lutheran Hospital

Former Husband was one who introduced her to Schaefer

good photos, especially one from senior yearbook yearbook quote "Hilda is born to command"

The Sun 01/21/1987

Color photos of Snoops with Schaefer as he leaves Baltimore to become Governor