HEADLINE: Houze Hubbard, Adkins Win Honors From Women's Bar Association
Mid-Year Meeting Also Will Feature Intro to 'Quasi-Judicial Bench'

BODY:

Recently retired Baltimore City Circuit Judge Mabel E. Houze Hubbard and Court of Special Appeals Judge Sally D. Adkins will receive the Rita C. Davidson Award from the Women's Bar Association of Maryland (WBA) next month. The award recognizes the judges' contributions "to the honor and integrity of the judiciary and for their advancement of women's interests in the legal profession." The WBA will bestow the awards at its mid-year meeting at Martin's West on Dec. 2. Before the meeting, the WBA will host an introduction to "Maryland's Quasi-Judicial Bench" featuring judges and hearing officers from a variety of boards and commissions. The presentation starts at 4:30 p.m. and costs $ 15. The reception starts at 6:30 p.m., with a cash bar followed by dinner and the awards presentation. Tickets are $ 40 for WBA members, $ 45 for non-members and $ 30 for law students. For more information or to purchase tickets, call Hilda Jungclaus at (800) 459-0118 or Jolie Weinberg at (410) 997-0203.
