

REPUBLICAN. ANNAPOLIS: SATURDAY, Nov. 8, 1851.

Election in this county has surprised both Whigs and Democrats. We are mortified and disappointed, and shall attempt this week, to explain the cause of our defeat. We have the proud satisfaction to know and feel that we have discharged our duty, and although we met with an unexpected and painful defeat, we are Whigs still, and ready to "fight on—fight forever," the glorious Whig Banner.
