BALTIMORE, AUG. 3, 1907.

Every wed an makes her hus nd a 'Hahisy-Andy' if he stay me wash loays." Perhaps the widea" o an has had "speri se" along hat line.

Under the law of Moses even an had a chance for his life; but in State of Maryland a Negro have pt even the chance of an ox.

t took eighty days to try a white in for murder in Idaho, but it did take eighty seconds to try a Ne in Maryland for committing a e crime.

We cannot believe that the better ment among the colored people lorsed the horrible lynching of the oderer Reed by the Cristicla mob-much better would it have i for all concerned to have allow-the law to have taken it course.

It another example of the inthe hatred of many of the superior e of the weaker.

a our issue of last week we comted upon what we believed to the been reliable information as to ceilia Johnson posing as a ite girl at the Chicago UniverFrom extracts from reliable teago daily papers sent to this we have come to the conclu-that we were misinformed, and lefore take this means of making per apology for our statements.

he "New Idea" published at Gal-fon, Texas, charges us with pub-ing the article which has been ig the rounds of the press, that dier T. Washington advised the ident that the discharging of Negro soldiere would effect no-prescept the Negro politicians. The beg to differ with the "New "as we published no such non-tion." The Afro-American Ledger is marcial of the news matter it alhe "New Idea" published at Gal-to go in its columns, and makes tement that it is not, in some corepared to prove. The prepared to prove. ANOTHER LYNCHING.

sareini of the news matter it al-rand has oeen disgraced by r outburst of brutalism on the white citizen. On or outburst of brutains Afterwards his body was to a telegraph pole, and mob, not satisfied with mob, not satisfied with a murder, surged through and beat and mauled a colored people and drove of town. These people is the world to do with the had committed the had committed the had.

Gospel is preactied to white people.
And would you believe it? The people of Cristield are supposed to be civilized too.
