

At A Monthly Meeting of women friends held at Indian Spring the 15th of the 3rd mo 1811.

~~All~~ representatives all present

The friends appointed to visit Elizabeth Cheney, rehort, they all attended to their appointment, (except one) ~~and~~ had a solid and satisfactory opportunity with her, and felt nothing to object to her being received into membership this Meeting uniting in judgement with the committee; she is accordingly received ^{she is} into membership.

Our dear friend Hannah Little opened in this meeting a prospect of attending the yearly Meeting of Philadelphia and some Meetings in the neighbourhood if way should open; (she being a minister esteemed among us) this Meeting uniting therewith she is left at liberty to pursue her prospect as truth may open the way.

Elizabeth Little requests a certificate to join her to Alexandria Monthly Meeting Sarah Morgan and Edith Scholfield are appointed to prepare one and produce to next Meeting.

Phebe Judge requests a certificate to join her to Baltimore Monthly Meeting for the Eastern district, Elizabeth Snowden, and Mary Cowman, are appointed to prepare one, and produce it to our next Meeting.

This Meeting Concludes.

At A Monthly Meeting of Women friends held at Sandy Spring the 19th of the 4th mo 1811

~~All~~ representatives all present

The 1st 2nd and 9th Queries have been read ~~and~~ with written answers from each of our preparative Meetings, which are in substance as follows.

Ans^r 1st All our Meetings for worship and discipline (except one small branch from which we have received no ~~account~~ report at this time) have been attended by most of our members, unbecoming behaviour avoided the hour of Meeting nearly observed by most friends.

2nd We believe most friends maintain love towards each other, talebearing and detraction discouraged; when differences arise some care is extended.

9th Friends endeavour to deal with offenders as recommended in this Query

We appoint Margaret Brooke, Mary Brooke, Henrietta Bently, Margaret Cowman, Sarah Morgan, and Deborah Pleasant, to attend the ensuing Quarterly Meeting. —

At a Monthly Meeting of women friends held at Indian Spring the 17th of the 1st mo 1812

~~All~~ representatives present except one who was prevented by indisposition in her family;

The 1st, 2nd, and 9th Queries have been read amongst us, with written answers from each of our Preparate Meetings which are in substance as follows;

Answer to 1st Query All our meetings for worship and discipline have been attended, unbecoming behaviour mostly avoided therein, and the hour nearly observed by most friends.

Answer 2nd Friends are generally preserved in love towards each other, talebearing and detraction discouraged, no apparent differences amongst us.

Answer 9th We believe friends are mostly careful with respect to the particulars of this Query.

Mary More, Mary Brooke, Mary Bowman, Letitia Gilpin, Hannah Little, Ann Scott and Henrietta Bentley are appointed to attend the Quarterly meeting ~~with~~ as our representatives.

The friends appointed in Sarah Pindels case not being ready to report ~~fully~~ ^{make a full} are continued.

The consideration of the education of the Coloured people in friends families, and select schools, for the education of friends children, being again revised and weightily considered. the following friends are appointed (to visit friends families, and endeavour to strengthen their hands, on these important subjects, Mary More, Mary Brooke, Edith Scholfield, Mary Bowman, Margaret Judge, and Elizabeth Lukens.

This meeting concludes

At a Monthly Meeting of women friends held at Sandy Spring the 21st of the 2nd mo 1812.

~~All~~ representatives present except one who was prevented by indisposition.

All the friends appointed attended the Quarterly Meeting except one who was prevented by indisposition.

Friends have been informed that Sarah Pindel has received the testimony against her and did not understand that she expressed any intention of appealing.

Men friends informed this meeting, that they unite with the judgment of women friends in recommending Margaret Fudge, to the notice of the Quarterly meeting of ministers and Elders, the Clerk is directed to unite with the clerk of mens meeting in signing a minute ~~to the~~ to the said meeting. —

One of the friends appointed some time past to correct and transcribe, the minutes of this meeting as far back as they could be collected, reports the service accomplish'd; if it is ~~the~~ ^{directed by} this meeting to have them bound, also a book purchas'd, for the purpose of recording our minutes, ^{both} at the expense of the ms. meeting, Mary Moore, Henrietta Bentley, and Mary P. Brooke, are appointed to the service.

The meeting concludes

At a Monthly Meeting of Women friends held at Indian Spring the 17th of 7th Month 1812. —

The queries have been read in this Meeting and answers from the different Preparative Meetings received from which the following summary ^{is comprised} ~~are extracted~~ ~~has~~, and directed ~~by the Meeting~~ to be forwarded to the Quarterly Meeting:—

1st ~~Ans~~ ^{Ans} All our Meetings for worship and discipline have been held and generally, well attended except one, which by the indisposition of some friends & the absence of others from the Neighborhood, and very stormy weather women friends were prevented from attending. —

2.^d Many friends maintain love towards each other, as becomes our christian profession, talebearing & detraction discouraged, when differences arise care is ~~taken~~ to be extended. —

3.^d We believe there is ^a care ~~taken~~ rests on the minds of many friends to endeavour both by precept and
