Fairfax County, October 12, 1761. JOHN PATTERSON, as Agent for the Right Honourable the Earl of TANKERVILLE, has, without my Privy, advertis'd in the Maryland Gazette of the 1st Instant, several Tracts of Land in Virginia, by him to be Let to Lease; but as those Lands, although devis'd to the said Lord Tankerville, by the last Will and Testament of the late John Colwill, are, however, also therein subjected to the Payment of his Debts, I have thought it necessary to inform those whom it may concern, that there are considerable Debts now due from the Estate of the said John Colwill, which, if not satisfied in a short Time, or a proper Indemnification against them given to me, will necessarily compel me the Subscriber, as Executor to the said John, to make sale of as much of the said Lands, as will pay or satisfy the said Debts.

1761/5. THOMAS COLVILL.

ALL Persons Indebted to the Subscriber on Account of Public Dues, are requested to discharge them, otherwise they must expect to be treated as the Law directs. And those who do not discharge their Quit-Rents and Land-Tax at November Court, will be Distrained on without Distinction.
