La Night we were favoured with a Dublin Paper In right we were rayoured with a Dublin Paper of its soth of January, from which we have felected the following Intelligence.

ON D 0 & Majthy's most gracious Speech to both Houses of Pary items, on Tussiday the Ninth Day of January, 1770.

y, Lords, and Gentlemen, is I find myfulf obliged to open this Seffion of Parliament with acquainting that the Diftemper among the horned Cattle has broke out in this Kingdom, notwithstanding or precaution that could be used for preventing the ction from foreign Parts. Upon the first Notice of indical Appearance, my next Attention was to endea-mer to ftop, if possible, its farther Progress And, as the access of those Endeavours must, in all Probability, have leaentirely defeated by any the leaft Degree of Delayin learntirely defeated by any the least Degree of Delayin to Application of them, I thought it absolutely negary, with the Advice of my Privy Council, to give intellate Directions for every Step to be taken, that upsared most capable of checking the instant Danger of the spreading of the Inrection, until I could have an opportunity of consulting my Parliament upon some note permanent Measures, for securing us against so rest a Calamity: And to your immediate and most resions Consideration I carnellly recommend this very rious Confideration I earnestly recommend this very aportant Object.

There given my Parliament repeated Affurances, it it has always been my fixed Purpole to preferve extit has always been my need Purpole to preserve exgeneral Tranquility; maintaining, at the same Tire, the Dignity and Honour of my Crown, together with the just Rights and Interests of my People. The uncommon Burthens which my Subjects have bone to chee, sully, in order to bring the late War to have conclusion, must be an additional Mories to happy Conclusion, muit be an additional Motive to take me vigilant, to prevent the present Disturbances have me viginant, to prevent the present Disturbances in Europe from extending to any Part, where the Seminy, Honour, or Interch of this Nation may make it estably for my Crown to become a Party. The Afarances which I receive from the other great Powers, and me Reason to believe, that my Endeavours will become to be successful. I shall still make the general interests of Europe the Object of my Attention; at interests or Europe the Object of my Attontion; at, while I steadily support my own Rights, I shall kequally careful not to acknowledge the Claims of an other Powers, contrary to the Limitations of the in Treaties of Peace.

It is needless for me to recommend to the ferious Arention of my Parliament the State of my Governert in America. I have endeavoured on my Part, r every Means, to bring back my Subjects there to heir Duty, and to a due Senig of lawful Authority. t gives me much Concern to inform you, that the et elons; and that, in some of my Colonies, many erious have embarked in Measures highly unwarranally, and calculated to dettroy the Commercial Con-

Condonen of the House, of Commons, I have ordered the proper Estimates for the Service fthe current Year to be laid before you. I am purmid that your Affection for my Perfon and Gov s, and your Zeai for the public Good, will induce ou to grant fuch Supplies as are necessary; and you may be assured, that, on my Part, they shall be paraged with the strictest Occonomy.

hir Lords, and Gentlemen, As the Webbare and Prospectity of my People have was been the Object of my Wishes, and the Relevof or Actions; to I am perfunded, from my Experience fyour Conduct, that you will be governed in your acceedings by the fame Principles. My ready Conarrence and Support in every Measure that may serve promote those Ends, you may always depend upon. myou it will be now, more than ever, incumbert, and tracfully to avoid all Heats and Animolities aregit yourselves, and to cultivate that Spirit of Harony which becomes those, who have but one com-con Object in their View, and which may be most kely to give Authority and Efficacy to the Result of our Deliberations. Such a Conduct, on your Part, , above all Things, contribute to maintain in their oper Luttre, the Strength, the Reputation, and the offerity of this Country; to firengthen the Attachat of my Subjects to that excellent Conflitution of sernment, from which they derive fuch diffinguish Advantages, and to cause the firm Reliance and addence which I have in the Wisdom of my Parliaent, as well as in their Zeal for the true Interests of People, to be justified and approved both at Home & Abroad.

it Address of the Lords and Commons will be inserted in our next.]

I'a. 10. By the many and early prident Precau-liftken to stem the Progress of the dreadful Mur-tithat lately broke-four among the horned Cattle, can with Pleasure affure the Public, that it has been wented from spreading even over the very County is broke out in; that it is almost confined to a fingle it, of no very great Extent; but that it has raged re with uncommon Violence.

The Devonshire, Defbyshire, and Herefordshire Petitions were Yellerday presented to his Majelty. Jan. 11. It is certain that the Welch Petition was Yesterday delivered to his Majeity by his Royal High-ness the Prince of Wales, and most graciously received.

It is assured that the Petition of the Town of Livers pool was figured by 1200 Persons, and the Protest by only 200. The whole Number of Freemen belonging to that Place we are told is but i 500. It is further faid, that the Protest was drawn up here, and fent

The House of Peers did not break up 'til past Ten o'Clock on Tuesday Night; and the House of Commons fat 'til Half an Hour past One Yesterday Morning. Yesterday the Earl of Chatham returned to his Seat at Hays.

The Names of the following Lords will be revered from the 9th Instant to the latest Posterity, as Friends to the British Constitution, and Afferters of the Rights of their Fellow Subjects:

The Dukes of Richmond, Portland, Manchester, Northumberland; the Marquiz of Rockingham; the Earls of Suffolk, Stamford, Abingdon, Scarborough, Albemarle, Tankerville, Aylestord, Macclesfield, Etfingham, Buckinghamshire, Fitzwilliams, Temple, Radnor, Chatham; the Viscount Toprington; the Lords Abergavenny, Byron, Craven, Royle, Trever, King, Monton, Chedworth, Edgecumbe, Fortefcue, Pontonby, Lyttleton, Wycombe, Grosvenor, Milton,

The Odds on Tuesday were 89 to 36, and 254 to

A Person of great Eminence in the Law has joined the Minority, as also has another great Lawyer.

We have the Pleasure to inform the Public, that a certain military Commander, of the highest Rank, who has ever been deservedly a Favourite with the People, has joined the Minority, and declared that "he shall ever look upon his Conduct, during the last Year, as the most reproachful Æra of his Life.

It was currently reported Yesterday at the West-End of the Town, that this Day would be the last that a noble and patriotic Lawyer was to remain in Office.

Mr. B—ke, the fame Day, in a certain Place, fpoke near Two Hours—There were Thirty-one

Speakers. Jan. 13. The patriotic Lord Camden, and his Friend Mr. Dunning, are still in Place, and it is said they will not resign; so that if the Ministry do not choose to have an honest Man among them, they must be turned

It is faid the Ministry having had a Consultation what they shall do with the Marquis of Granty, have retolved, that it is not prudent to turn him out at this Time. Colonel B. the other Day, declared in a certain Place, that the M- y had alienated the Minds of Thirteen Millions of People. A certain Baronet of the most respectable Character, and of very great and extensive Influence, declared in a once august Assembly, that that Assembly had tetrayed the Rights and Interests of their Constituents. This he not only afferted, but (on some very gentle Animadversion from an Opponent) claiming the Right of Explanation, he said, "Lest I should be mitunderstood, this House has betrayed the Rights and Interests of their Constituents."

In Consequence of the above Declaration, we are told, that our virtuous Ministers have resolved that he shall be expelled, and David Roche, Esq. commonly known by the Name of Tiger Roche, is to be a Can-didate in his Stead, for the largest County in England. lo Doubt can be ascertained of his Success, as Two No Doubt can be already for that Purpose.
