LON DON

Jaze 14. Vesterday Morning at Nine o'Clock, came on in the Court of King's Bench, at Guildhall, before Lord Mansfeld, the Triat of Henry Sampton Woodfall, the original Printer of Junius Letter, in the Publick Advertifer of the 19th of Decimber 14th. Only seven of the special Jury which was summoned attended; wis, William Bond, Merchant, Foreman; Peter Cazalet, Merchant, Merchant, Merchant, Hermen Merchant, Frederick Commercial, Merchant, Hermen Merchant, John Thomas, Merchant, Rar-

Merchant . John Thomas, Merchant . Barrington Buggin, Merchants.

Upon which the following Five Talelmen were taken out of the common Jury; one. William Hannard, Paul Verges, William Sibley, William Willer, William Davis.

The Attoiney General addressed the Jury with a Speech; marthe Importance of Juries; due confined them to the hard for a fash Decadant mubiling a Paper, which he called a Libel, and then made an Apolecy for hringing on Mr. Almon's Trial for felling easy, beings the original Printer's, and promised to prolecute all the Printer's and Publishers of this celebrated Paper. He called his Evidences, who were, Nathaniel Crowder, the pretended Newlining, employed by the Millistry, who sworehas bought the Paper of Mr. Woodfally achilding Servant, whom he naroed; Mr. Harre, of fall; and a Clerk of the John Field salled, proved, by a Receipt of the Concern in and for the Paper.

The Publication and Direction of the Peper by Mri. Woodfall being thus purved, Mr. Serjean Glyng, in a very cloquent and learned speech state jury, defended the Paper, as no Libel; as thing very respectful to the King, perforably, but atvalening the Conduct of, the Ministers; and if such Discussion was not all loved in this Country, he faid; there with be an End of the Liberty of the Price; adding, that there was no Intention in Mr. Woodfall, to publik a Libel, and if the Intention was not proved, he hoosed, and armited, they would find Mr. Woodfall are guity.

Mr Lee, who was also Counted for Mr. Woodfall, defended the Paper pion, the fame Principles; which not being proved, and which he thought effential to conflict the Crime, they must find hyper guilty.

Lord Manifeld, in his Charge to this jury, faid; they had nothing to do with the faterious, not with the other Words in the Informations such as musicipus, failinis, &c. which, he affirmed, were will Mords of Courfe; just as is in faid in an Indistment for Murder, that the Perfin did, Sc. at the Information of the Confidention of the Jury; one was, the East of publishing the Paper; the other, whether a sever Conference was out, in the Jury; one was, the Fact of publishing the Paper; the Jury; one was, the Fact of spablishing the Paper; the other; whether a proper Confession was put; in the Information upon the fewers Blanks in the Paper; and at to the Contents of the Raper, whether they were true problem he faid it was wholly immaterial.

At Ten Minutes, before Twelve the Jury withdrew, and returned, about Nine, finding Mr Woodfall guilty of the printing and publishing only. The Court had broke up about Rour hallowing in the Lordinip with their Verdick, at his bloule in Bloombury figures.

Yesterday, the following Address, Petition, and Remonstrance, from the Freeholders of the County of Surrey, was presented to his Majelly as $t. James's, by Junes 7. The Verdict of the Jury on the late Trial of Mr. Woodfall, for, printing and publishing; what was called in the Information a felfe, fainteless, and fedition kites, being faid to be writhout a Precedent, has called to Mind a not unfinish verdict of a Jury in the Reign of King Churles the Second, when some Quakers were tried at the Old Baily, for holding unlawful Affemblies, and preaching Dodrines contrary to the commonly overceized Opinion off the Church. Jefferies, who then fat as Judge, after aggravating the Zeal of that truly plous People into a Crune of a very helmous Nature, recommended is strongly to the Jury to find them guilty. The Jury accordingly withdrew, and, after being out some Line, brought in their Verdict guilty of arracting. The Judge reprimanded them and sent back again.
