Yesterday all the Russian transports failed with a load for Pharsus.

hear the Russian men of war will be ready for about a week's time, as their bottom are very well want only their decks and upper works caulked. Those ships are to be supplied with constructed pumps and patent blocks."

of an ambuscade letter from a general officer at Lengkoff in Silesia, December 29.

Russians have taken Silesia by storm; the loss has been dreadful. Warsaw has capitulated; Marshal Rumyantseff means to fix his winter-quarters on the other side of the Danube, and depend upon the authenticity of this news I conclude with me, that cession of the empire.

From Warsaw says, it was reported there, the Russians at the siege of Silesia had the good to blow up the gunpowder magazine of the fort, and in the mean time that the garrison and the rebels, in the utmost confusion, were very busy extinguishing the violent fire which was occasioned byRussians, at the same time, took advantage of opportunity, and took the fortress by storm.

Russia, of which some of the foreign gazettes give account (asserting that it was immediately) we are informed is of great consequence to our advices this insurrection was caused vigorous preying of men at Cazan and its environs, and that the number of the combined rebels can above 12,000 men, General Brand, the commander of place, joined by captain Orenberg, who regiment cantoned in that neighbourhood, went their troops against the rebels, in order to bring them under subjection; but not expecting the rebels to be numerous, their troops were defeated, and both captured officers were killed in the engagement; success raised the spirit of the rebels so, that a vast more have joined them, and they are actually moving towards the city of Moscow; they rob and all the villages where they pass, and behave to inhabitants in a most cruel manner, which evict alarms the court of Peterburgh; so that all the in the neighbourhood of that residence are ordered into the city; even the regiment of Pe-terburgh, commanded by captain Szeplow, and the regt. of the Hungarian Hussars of captain Drewitz, are at Warsaw, have of late received orders to march to Peterburgh as speedily as possible. The speaker of the house of commons wishes as great a loss for a sufficient number of members to make a house as on Saturday. He was enabled, to take the chair a little before three; when, very little business being done, the house adjourned to-morrow.

Several petitions were presented to the house of commons, particularly from the merchants, traders, and counties of York, Lincoln, Nottingham, and relative to the navigation of the rivers Air and Salibury journal confirms the account, that on the 9th, between three and four in the morning, a fire broke out at the seat of the hon. Mr. Fox, overflow, which in a few hours burnt the same to the ground, except the kitchen, which being a dwelling, escaped the flames. Most of the plate, and valuable furniture, were saved.

Speaker having reported to the house his majesty's address of Saturday, the house then resolved into a committee to consider of the motion of Saturday, and came to a resolution that a supplement to his majesty's speech resolution is to be to-morrow.

N N A P O L I S, March 24.

General Assembly of this province was to have on Monday last, but the bad weather having prevented the attendance of a sufficient number of members to compose a lower house until yesterday, his Excellency was then pleased to open the session with the SPEECH.

of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, nothing at this time particularly to propose or consider, which would not be a repetition what I recommended at the opening of last session, having obtained permission to return to England on account of some affairs which my personal attendance there I presumed it agreeable to you to concur before my departure, therefore now meet you, and shall with pleasure be ready to co-operate with you in making such regulations as may be conducive to the interest of this province.

UM in the former part of Dr. Howard's second letter to Dr. Whitehead; is blind regarding the name and the right of his wife, and her title, read to the House of Commons, 1773.

To be sold by John King, at his stables, Warren's a black horse, 5 years old this spring, remarkably strong, and well made, very fit for city use, for the wagon, or to breed from in the country; to prevent trouble, the lowest price is £ 50. The horse will be led out every day, and shown betwixt the hours of 12 and 1 in the street, by the coffee-house door.

To be sold cheap, a neat post coach, box to take off, with harness, for four horses, to drive either with a coachman or postilion; there is belonging to the coach, a pair of shafts, with postilion lades, and long traces. The wheels are as good as new, and the carriage in good order, having had a thorough repair last year.

To be sold also, a very useful convenient post chaise, may be used with or without a box, is remarkably easy, and being hung up the French way, on brancards, is in no danger of being overthrown by turning short in the narrow streets.

To be sold also, a genteel phaeton, with a crane neck, and harness for a pair of horses.

For particulars, enquire of John King, at his stables, late Warren's.

Baltimore-Town, March 12, 1774.

To be sold, and entered upon in a month if required, a lot of ground, situate in Frederick-street, near Meyer's tan-yard, and between the two lower bridges on Jones's falls; there are 130 feet on the front, 180 feet deep, and 125 feet on the lower front. It is on lease for 99 years, renewable for ever, and subject to a ground rent of only 40/- sterling per annum. About 16 years of the lease are expired; on the front of the lot in Frederick-street, is a large brick dwelling house, wherein the subscriber now lives, 30 feet front, 23 feet deep, two story high, having two parlours, a passage, and stair-case below; four good chambers, three whereof have fire places, and above, two good garrets well finished. There are also adjoining to the said dwelling, a good brick kitchen and larder, with proper chambers for servants; also a brick warehouse, 32 feet by 15, two story and cellar, nearly one half of the front of the lot is yet unimproved, there being only an old log building that served as a jail, and which may be removed at pleasure. There is an exceeding good garden well inclosed; this lot would suit a distiller, brewer, or sugar-baker; as there is room sufficient for building, and a lane may be opened through the lot from one street to another; what buildings are on this lot are faithfully executed; the brick walls some are 18 inches thick, and none less than 12 inches, even to the ridge pole; the purchaser need lay down but little cash, if any, good security with interest will suffice, and one fourth of the money will be only at four per cent per annum interest as I am determined at all events, to leave this province, and desirous of settling all my affairs, any person inclined to purchase, will find me very reasonable in my demand for this lot.

AN away from the subscriber on the 11th instant, living near Lyon's creek, Calvert county, a servant man named John Baptist Dilla Franey, born in England but of French extraction; he went away with a certain Mary Pain, who has with her a young child, they are supposed to have gone to some part of Herring Bay or the river sides, as he professes spinning knitting and can cart and plow. The said Franey is well set, broad Shouldered, about five feet two inches high, his hair between a sandy and lightish brown, gray eyes, full visaged, and remarkable for flattery in his speech; had on when he went away a lightish colored jacket and breeches, osnabrig shirt, old yarn stockings, new shoes and buckles; and a felt hat. Whoever takes up the said servant and brings him to the subscriber shall have 10 shillings reward if taken in the county, and out of the county a pistol paid by the subscriber, and reasonable charges; and if in any prison to give immediate notice to Annapolis, February 28, 1774.

JOHN KING, late coachman to his excellency governor Eden, takes this method of informing the public and his old customers, in particular, that he hath taken the stables belonging to Mr. John Warren, at the rose and crown tavern in Annapolis, where he hath provided every thing that is necessary for the accommodation of gentlemen and ladies as choose private lodgings, either by the year, quarter, month, week, or day, as may be most convenient to them. Those ladies and gentlemen who please to favour her with their custom, may depend on the utmost care and fidelity, by their most obedient humble servant,

JOHN ROBINSON.

N. B. Any person having a quantity of good ham to dispose of, from 100 to 1000 weight, at 6d. per pound, may have a sale of the same by applying as above.

Alexandria, Feb. 23, 1774.

BAY BOLTON, a full-blooded Hunter. WILL stand this next season at Tortorah, my plantation, about half way between Alexandria in Virginia and George Town in Maryland, the place he stood at last year, and will cover Mares on the same terms, at one guinea the leap and five shillings to the groom, or two guineas the season and ten shillings to the groom. — I think it needless to describe him, as so many good judges have seen him, and agree he is the completest horse that has been imported for this country; he is in much better order this year than he was last, and is grown.

Those who choose to go by the sea may depend on good pasture and great care, but I will not be answerable for any mares that may be lost. Last season we had twenty-odd mares at a time, some stand near a month, none were lost or hurt, and all returned in better order than when they came. The money will be expected, when the mares are taken away, by JOHN CARLYLE.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has lately removed from the house he lived in at the Dock, and has now opened a tavern in the house where Dr. Steuart formerly lived, in Francis street, and opposite to Mr. Robert Couden's store. The house is much enlarged and rendered very commodious, the lodging rooms are light and airy and have most of them fire places; there are good stables and yard for the reception of horses, and as the house is situated about half way between the Stadt-house and the Dock, it is equally convenient to the gentlemen of the Eastern and Western shore. No expense has been spared to procure every necessary article of the best quality, and as he is determined to do everything in his power to oblige, he hopes for the encouragement and approbation of the public.

ISAAC M' HARD.

N. B. Young gentlemen may be boarded as cheap as at any general private boarding house in town, and may if they choose be quite retired.

THE widow Flynn takes this method of informing the public and her old customers, in particular, that she hath once more furnished herself with a house (in Church street near the Dock) and every thing necessary for the accommodation of such gentlemen and ladies as choose private lodgings, either by the year, quarter, month, week, or day, as may be most convenient to them. Those ladies and gentlemen who please to favour her with their custom, may depend on the utmost care and fidelity, by their most obedient humble servant,

SARAH FLYNN.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Sunday the 4th of March, a servant man named THOMAS M' INNIRHENCY, a joiner by trade, about 24 years of age, wears his own hair which is red, is much freckled, he is a slim made man, and may be known to be an Irishman by his talk, and is about 5 feet 10 inches high; had on and took with him a short light coloured bearkin coat and breeches, the latter, a pair of reddish coloured cloth breeches, double breasted red waistcoat, light gray worsted ribbed stockings, and was imported into the province in June last by Capt. Caldwell Howard. Any person who secures the said servant so that I get him again shall receive the above reward and all reasonable charges.
