MARTLAND GAZETT

A Y, SEPTEMBER 5, 1776.

L O N D O N, May 30,

HIS morning four large Dutch thips, lately taken into the transport service, arrived at Spithead. They will carry from fix to nine hundred tons, and we are informed are to be entirely loaded with provisions from Ireland, for the use of the army in North-America. They are to join the fleet in Plymouth.

Yesterday an express was sent to Cork and Waterford, for the ships loading with provisions at those ports to hold themselves in readiness to sail by the 4th of June, to join the fleet the first fair wind, as they are all Orders are fent down to Woolwich from the board of ordnance, for several thousand balls to be made with all expedition; a transport is lying off Woolwich to take the said balls, some thousands of boots, waistcoats, &c. &c. for the Hessians.

Orders are fent to Plymouth for a frigate of war to be got in immediate readiness for sailing; she is to take on board a twelve months provisions, and is to be provided with close quarters. The nature of the expedition she is going on is kept secret.

The packets which are in suture to carry dispatches to and from America, are to mount from 16 to 20 guns

NEWPORT, August 14.

A gentleman from the eastward informs, that the Hancock privateer, of Philadelphia, has taken and carried into Marblehead a large transport from England, with 250 Hessian troops in board. She has also taken a Jamaica ship, laden with 400 hogsheads of sugar, and 100 puncheons of rum, and carried her into Newbury-

NEW-YORK, August 25.)

We hear orders are already arrived in the Weft-Indies from England, for Admiral Young to feize and cut out all the American vessels that may be found in any foreign ports.

The Pomona frigate has taken and carried into St. Kitt's. a Dutch ship going from St. Eustatia, it is said, to Amsterdam, loaded with sugars, but we hear she had powder on board, and was bound to America. The yessel is said to be the property of Mr. De Graff, of St.

We hear that for the future English men of war will not be permitted to enter the road of st. Eustatia.

Wednesday evening last we had here as violent a thunder gust as has been remembered by the oldest man now living among us. The lightning struck a marquee now living among us. The lightning struck a marquee in general M'Dougal's camp, near the Bull's head in the Bowery, and instantly killed capt. Van Wyck and his two lieutenants Versereau and Depyster. A soldier named Ephraim Bartlet, was also killed in the house of Mr. Joseph Hallet, in Hanover-square, and several others much hurt. We also hear four men were killed on Long-island, and some houses and barns burnt near Tappan.

Tuelday last a number of sinps, with troops on board, failed from Staten-Island out of the Narrows; next day they were followed by many more, and about ten o'cleck Thursday merning about 10,000 men landed between New Utrecht and Gravesend, on Long-Island-Friday a party of them came and took possession of Flat-Bush, which immediately brought, on a very hot fire front our troops who are advantageously possed in fire front our troops who are advantageously posted in the woods, and on every eminence round that place.

An advanced party of the regulars are encamped a little to the northward of Flatbuili Church, and have a battery somewhat to the westward of Mr. Jeremiah Vanderhelt's, from whence they continue to fire brifkly on our people, who aften approach and discharge their on our people, who after approach and differinge their rifles within 200 yards of their works. We have had only four men wounded fince the enemy landed; but we are certain many of them fell; one, a Hessian; was killed last Friday: Several dollars were found in his pocket, and he had an excellent rifle, and many of the regulars are in riste dresses.

August 28. It is said the enemy on Long-Island have been reinforced, and are now suppesed to be so,000 strong. Yesterday several skirmishes happened between our troops and theirs, but we cannot obtain any particular account; all we can learn is, that we have taken 22 prisoners, viz. a captain, serjeant, corporal, and 16 privates, belonging to the marines, and major Cudgjo, commander of lord Dunmore's black regiment. Never did troops behave with greater courage and refolution than our's did on the occasion. They made several attacks upon our lines, but were repulled with considerable loss. Our troops are in high spirits. We hourly expect to heat of their renewing. the attack.

PHILADELPHIA, August 27.

Since the departure of the able-bodied men from the Forks of Brandywine, in Chester county, on the fervice of their country, the patriotic young women, to preven the evil that would follow the neglect of puttisg in the fall crop in feafon; have joined the ploughs, and are preparing the fallows for the feed; and, fould their fathers, brothers and lovers be detained abroad in defence of the liberties of thefe flates, they are derermined to put in the crop themselves-a very laudable example, and highly worthy of imitation.

Letters from Ticonderoga mention, that two defer-ters from the Brunswickers had come in, who say that many more came off with them.

On Wednesday night, about ten o'clock, we had a violent from from the north-east, which lasted about two hours, attended with almost incession thunder and lightning. Mr. Ottinger, of Springfield, about ten miles northward of this city, had a large barn, many stacks of hay, and corn in slieaf, set on fire by the lightning, and entirely consumed. ning, and entirely confumed.

Extrast of a letter from Alband, August 19.

" An officer, who went on a reconhoitre to St. John's and Chamblee, fell in with a regular officer on horieback alone, on the road between La Praire and St. John's, summoned him to surrender himself prisoner, hut clapping fours to his horse rode off, the officer fired at and shot him. It turns out to be a general

BEING, authorised by congress, as their commanders in every department are, to negotiate an exchange of prisoners, and presuming, as well from the nature of your lordship's command, as the information gen. Howe has been pleased to honour me with, that the exchange in the naval line will be subject to your lordship's direction, I beg leave to propose the following mode of exchange for your lordship's consideration, viz. "Officers for those of equal rank; and sailors for sailors."

If the above proposal should be agreeable to your

If the above proposal should be agreeable to your lordship, I am charged, in a particular manner, to exchange any officer belonging to the British navy, in our hands, and of equal rank, for lieutenant Josiah, who was lately made prisoner in a saip retaken by the Cerherus frigate.

The reason, my lord, of my being charged to propose the exchange of lieut. Josian, in preference to that of any other officer, is, that withentic intelligence has been received that, regardless of his rank as an officer, he has not only been subjected to the duties of a common feaman, but has experienced many other marks of in-

As a different line of conduct, my lord, has been ever observed towards the officers of your navy, who have fallen into our hands, it becomes not only a matter of duty but of right in me to mention this to your lordthip, to the end that an enquiry may be made into the cale above referred to.

From your lordship's character for humanity, I am led to presume, that the hardships imposed on lieut: Josiah are without either your knowledge or concur-Josiah are without either your knowledge or concurrence, and therefore most readily hope that, upon this representation, your lordship will enjoin all officers under your command to pay such regard to the treatment of those that may fall into their hands, as their different ranks and situation may require, and such as your lordship would wish to see continued by us to those who are already in our power, or who may hereafter, by the chance of war, be subjected to it.

I have the honour to be, my lord,
Your lordship's most obedient servant.

Your lordship's most obedient servant, GEORGE WASHINGTON. To the right honourable lord viscount Howe, admiral and commander in chief of the British navy in America.

Eagle, of Staten-Island, Luzust 9, 1776.

CONCURRING with the proposition you have been pleased to make in your favour of the 17th for ah exchange of priloners in my department, viz. " Officers for those of equal rank, and failors for failors.". I will take the liberty to propose an officer of the same rank of lieut. Josiah, when he arrives.

The Cerberus being absent, I have no other information respecting the situation of Mr. Jossah, than what is communicated in your letter. But the matter you may be affured thail be enquired into, and every attention paid to the sules of propriety, as well as the dictates of humanity, on all fuch occasions.

Principles and conduct form the true distinction of rank amongst men; yet, without a competent habit in the manners of the world, they are too liable to meet with unmerited difregard. But insult and indignities to perions of whatever rank, who are become parties in these unhappy disputes, cannot be justified, and are, I persuade myself, as much disapproved of by every officer under my command, as they can never cease to be

I am with great personal respect, sir, your most obedient humble servant, HOWE. To general GEORGE WASHINGTON, &c. &c. &c.

- His excellency general CARLETON'S ORDERS.

THE commanding officers of corps will take ef-pecial care every one under their command be informed, that letters or mellages from rebels, traitors in arms against the king, rioters, disturbers of the public peace, plunderers, robbers, assassins, or murderers, are on no occasion to be admitted; that, should emissaries from fuch lawless men again presume to approach the army, whether under the name of flag of truce men or ambaffadors, except when they come to implore the king's' mercy, their persons shall be immediately select and epimmitted to close confinement, in order to be p o-eceded against as the law directs; their papers and tet-
