FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

Upper Marlborough, Prince-George's county, September 12, 1786.

RAN away from the subscriber, on the 4th of June, a negro man named CHARLES. Twenty-five years of age, a short thick fellow, about five feet six inches high, has a short flat nose, a very bushy head of hair, thick lips, with a lump on the upper one, he is a handy fellow, and works well at the whip saw; had on when he went away his common working dress; I have reasons to believe he has other cloaths with him, but cannot particularly describe them, therefore he probably may change his apparel. As I purchased him of Noley Young, Esq; on Patowmack, I apprehend he is lurking about in this neighbourhood. Whoever takes up and secures the said fellow, to that his master may get him again, shall receive if above ten miles from home thirty shillings, if out of the county forty shillings, and if out of the State the above reward, including what the law allows, paid by Baltimore, August 31, 1786.

Was lost, or mislaid,

THE register books belonging to the vestry of St. Paul's Parish, in Baltimore county; they were carried to Annapolis to the general court, in the year 1781 or 1782, to be made use of as testimony in a trial then depending between James Morgan and Messieurs Bartley and Holtzimer, and supposed to be left in some of the offices at Annapolis, or in the possession of some of the gentlemen concerned in that suit; they are bound in parchment, about eighteen inches long, and seven or eight wide. Any person who will give the subscriber information where they may be had, will receive the thanks of the vestry, and be handsomely rewarded for any trouble they may be at in giving such information.

By order of the vestry,

JOHN E. GIST, register of St. Paul's parish.

IN consequence of an advertisement of mine, forewarning all persons, indebted at either of my stores in Virginia or Maryland, from settling any of their accounts with Mr. John Petty, that gentleman has been pleased to return for answer, that my prohibition was as unjust as my allegation was without foundation; that it was with concern he found himself under the necessity of entering into a public altercation about his private affairs, and should I persist in my unjustifiable accusations, a full account of my transactions with, and conduct towards, Yates and Petty, would enable an impartial public to judge which of the parties had the greatest reason to complain of ill treatment. I would beg leave to inform the gentleman, that it is as disagreeable to me as it can possibly be to him to appear in the public prints, though, at the same time, very willing to appear any where to justify that conduct which I have and hope ever shall be able to reconcile to my own conscience. As he has now broached the matter, I insist on his laying before the public my conduct to Yates and Petty, and trust I shall be very easily able to confute any untruths he may expect to impose upon the public, by an open and candid definition of the facts that my prohibition is unjust, is an assertion as libelous as 'tis ungrounded. I hope those gentlemen indebted as before mentioned, will pay no attention to Mr. Petty's request of paying their respecting accounts to him, as it will only involve them in law suits, for I am determined to sue every person that has or shall pay any money to Mr. Petty (for dealings at either of my stores previous to the fourth of February) since the public notice I have given.

THOMAS RUTLAND.
