wherever he

as feen at An.

owards Balti-

o Bob, so that

altimore, Ro.

ne subscribers,

ed not to take

Chip WILLING

ndon, and to

nost realonable

and CO.

Dacco, Queen.

ent of DRY

ind carcavelle

h cordage and

sit 21, 1787.

ALE.

Trast of land,

an's Field, (be-

ted) containing

on the head of

about 3 miles

of Annapolis

orge-town, and

ndian Landing

rn, wheat, and

and capable of

ence; there are

t of the timber

d prefer dispole

no objection to

is conveniently

al proportion

or erecting dil-

d—a very good

s some meadow

dily made. The

ling house with

quarter, corn-

very fine apple

trees, together

n at Mr. Vachel

ll shew the pre-

, and Brothers,

had-for price,

DINGTON,

INGS.

old by

IDALL

or Five

ard,

nost unprinciples

a dark mulato

sterday evening

well made and

fear by the right

camination; had

rt and trousers,

kles, with a fee

ftroke of villany

will effect it.

en to secure him

reis that there

impose; he m

as brought from

will now make to

state, or Penny

d some vessel.

on who will pu

nim again, of I

ng charges when

of Anne-Arunou

WARFIELD

others, are lore

ff at their peril.

rends to permi

the act of affect

incis-Street.

AES DURGIN.

adelphia,

rees.

E, and Co.

ve re ward, on

it is likely be

ARTLAND GAZETTE.

TANUARY 3, 1788.

POLAND, September 5.

WWW HE Ottoman land forces on the frontiers of that empire consist of 300,000, men, and its naval power is composed of 80 sail of shipping, most of www. which are proceeding in the Black sea. The army near Oczakow contains 60,000 men.

VIENNA, September 11.

An answer has been dispatched from the emperor others say, that it was only his wife and children, During the late riots in Paris, none distinguished will no doubt have contrived to put the Russian comhad with the internuncio, had infisted upon his re- scandalous and indecent manner.

hips of war, which had been launched in the pre- died the next day. ence of the empress of Russia, and had sailed down he Nieper, in order for completing their armaards failed towards the coasts of Taurida.

LONDON, September 29.

expedition, and is expected to be ordered into the annel in the course of the week.

No person is more ample in his testimony of apobation of the present measures, than Mr. Fox. or correspondent fays, that Mr. Fox speaks of em in terms of warm panegyrick. This fact shews, ry clearly, that it is measures and not men, which tite the attention of those who are distinguishby the name, though it is not just, of the opposi-

Extract of a letter from Vienna.

Since the declaration of war made by the Porte all Europe."

ders, &c. was held at the London Tavern, which prince," s very thinly attended; a very few persons, except lis pretent footing.

was, to oblige all who open a banking shop, either figns to support the Russian interests or not. The in town or country, to have at least 20,000l. vested Turks, they fay, have demanded this in fo strong a their creditors in case of a failure.

second declaration of war, on the part of the grand coast of Ba bary, a most beautiful young lion, which the keys of Moldavia and Servia. fignior, against the house of Austria. We presume was brought up from five weeks old, by sucking "We are affored fince the arrival of the letters of that the Porte has already prevented the answer to goats instead of its dam. It is so exceeding tame, the 20th, that the Porte has stopped all the Russian the emperor, by the arrest of our internuncio. In that it feems to be unhappy but when it has compa. This found on the 16th in the Canal, and that the effect, a report has been some days here, that this ny. The keeper who came over with it has fre- fleet is to fail immediately to engage the Russian minister in returning from a conference with the quently gone into the den, and played with it? So fleet near the Crimea, where the Turks hope to fur-who went thither to be out of danger. But as the themselves so much, or were more numerous than mander on his guard." ministry have published nothing on the subject; tho' the lawver's clerks. In the first riot they were faid OB. 4 By private advices from Paris we learn, we have had advices to late as the 25th of August, to amount to 3000; and nor satisfied with the reports circulating there are, that no hostilities we hope it is without foundation. Our advices men burning the king's arret before the queen and compte will interrupt the harmony subfishing between the

The minister, it is said, however, held firm, and the two galleys under the commander de Bourdou- long duration, from the interference of the English leclared resolutely to the Reis Effendi, "That if he maye are returned from Sicily, and the sour com- ambassador at Constantinople; who if report says lid know the intentions of his master, he would keep manded by general Ruspoli are going to fail. Captain true, much to the credit of his embassy, and the behem secret, and not reveal them to the Ottoman Gaetan Gavezzo, accompanied by another corsair, nest of his country, has over-reached the French in ministers without the express order of his ma- was attacked by a xebec of Tripoli, command by a their machiavelian policy, and secured to England Renegado, the fought with such courage, that the Levant trade, to the exclusion of France from Sept. 15. Letters from Hermanstadt, say, that the Tripolitan, after losing a number of men, blew up; those advantages she has long possessed. The terms fecond civision of the Turkish fleet having sailed to- they could only save three men, half burnt, who are said to be, that on occasion of the Porte ceding wards Oczakow, had intercepted four large Russian were fold immediately to a Moorish meschant, but to England the island of Caudia, she will assist them thorres to assure the public, by a letter from the tions. pents at Sebastianopolis. The Turkish fleet after- baren de Rheede, amhassador of the states at the court of Berlin, that the minister of France has declared to alluded to: the king of Prussa, that his royal master by no means disapproves of the mode adopted to procure satisfac- tween 22 and 27 degrees of E. long and between 35 Yesterday the marquis of Carmarthen received tion for the injury offered to the illustrious fister of and 36 degrees of N. lat. in the Mediterranean sea, me private confidential letters from Paris, which the Prussian monarch; that consequently the rapid having the Archipelago on the N. Asia minor, or rbode well of Mr Grenville's negotiation, and movement of his troops, the subjugation of the Natolia on the N. E the Morea on the N. W. and om which it is concluded that there will be no war places inimical to the stadtholder without the effation Africa on the S generally reckoned to lie in Afia. tween Great Britain and France. Mr. Grenville of blood, are objects of a laudable nature. His There is no considerable river in the island, but as to leave Paris on Thursday or Friday at far- most Christian majesty also declares, through the me- many little rivulets, of which Lethe is one of the dium of his representative, that he confiders the out- largest; and here is the celebrated mount Ita, which Lord Hood, who now commands at Plymouth, has rage offered in too ferious a light to be passed over takes up great part of the middle of the island; and ders to prepare all his ships for sea with the great- in silence by the illustrious brother of the stadtholder; notwithstanding the fine descriptions we meet with of but at the same time mentions, that as soon as the it in the ancient poets, it is only a large barren intentions of his Prussian majesty are fully accom- rock, destitute of trees and herbage, though the plished, his most Christian majesty expects, that he vallies beneath are well replenished with all manner will immediately order the Prussian army to be with. of excellent fruits, and the villages numerous. drawn from the Dutch territories; and that the former, relying on the amicable fentiments of the latter, will then, as a demonstration of mutual friendship, countermand the orders issued for the assemblage of a considerable number of troops at Givet.

A letter from Edinburgh, dated September 25, fays, "Last night and this morning we had a very hot press indeed; report says, six hundred men were

Extract of a letter from Figura, September 5. upon the question of abolishing custom-house wife brought others for divers foreign ministers rehad experienced the same lot as the Russian minister, quired to suffil their conditions have declined it. okers, and that the principal object of regulation to declare within a certain time if his fovereign de- was demanded, that he should be given up to the

in the government funds, as a collateral security to manner, as gives room for the supposition that they have some idea of attacking the two empires at once. It is intended to bring forward an act to restrain. Whether there is any reality in this supposition or drivers of sheep and horned cattle, and drivers of not, our court is seriously taking the most effectual horses, from inflicting cruelties, the laws existing methods to oppose any hostile projects of the Turks. having been found ineffectual. There is a benignity The most express orders have been sent to Hungary in this measure which must adorn the national cha- and Gallicia to advance the troops immediate y toracter. Mercy to beafts is a duty. They have tense, wards the frontiers, so that we do not expect the to the blunt demand made by the Ottoman ministry, they have feeling, and those who are of a domestic Turks to commence hostilities by an irruption in our respecting the part he would take in the war; it is nature are generally endowed with humanity and provinces; besides, we know they have sent their as follows: "That the Turks being the aggressors, properties to make the most beneficial returns to their forces towards Belgrade and Bosnia. We expect the his majesty could not but fu fil the engagements he masters. We owe justice to each other, but grace regiments destined for the winter campaign to be had entered into with the empress of Russia." In and good nature to brutes.

Nednesslav was landed at the Related to the Relat consequence of this we expect to hear immediately a Wednesday was landed at the tower, from the Belgrade and Choczim, these two fortresses being

Reis Effendi on the 19th of August, was obliged to much the nature of even furious animals may be prise them; but Mr. Bulgakow, who expected the take refuge in the house of the French ambassador; changed by custom and gentle usage.

declaration of war from the beginning of August, ion, that the Reis Effendi in the last conference he d'Artois, they abused both to their faces in the most English and French courts with respect to the affairs of Holland; but, that it is extremely problematical realing what had passed at the interview at Cherson. According to letters from Malta, dated July 6, in another point of view, whether peace will be of with whatever shall be requisite by sea; and in Off. 1. A late Hague Gazette fays:-We are au- France, to this they attribute our hossile prepara-

The following is a concile description of the place

Candia island, the ancient Crete, is situated be-

Substance of the manifesto of the Ottoman court against the court of Russia, communicated on the 24th of August to all the foreign ministers.

After the desire of tranquillity and public repose had induced the sublime Porte and the court of Russia to put an end to hostilities in the year 1774, this last took every occasion to make turther proposicions, ainst Russia, the Aulick council of war have been pressed at Leith, and three hundred in town. This incongruous with a sincere reconciliation, and conpliantly employed; and all appearances announce duty was conducted, however, very irregularly, no trary even to their own solemn conventions. She at our court will support that of Petersburgh by an officer heading the gangs, and no fanction having unexpectedly invaded the Crimea, the independence xiliary corps, or at least, we shall form a nume- been obtained from the civil magistrate; and some of which was the basis of the peace of Kaynardgy; cordon on the frontiers. Orders have been of the citizens were wantonly wounded. In confe- and whilst to attain perfect security on both sides, ven to levy nine new regiments, and all officers of quence of which our magistrates have issued warrants and to annihilate all further causes for contentions. Valids, or who are pensioned and in a state fit for and loaged all the press-gangs they can find in the between the two states, it was agreed in a reciprocal vice, are invited to enter. The ancient corps are city guard. It is said they have also granted war- piece of communication, and expressly declared in a on the war establishment; and the Croats, who rants to apprehend the commanding officers on board capitulation, that neither openly, nor in secret, any re marching to the Pais Bas, and the artillery, their respective ships. The Gazette has diffused acts of hostility were to be committed; the court of had advanced to Lintz, have received orders to universal joy; and all ranks are happy at the success Russia excited the Kan of Testis, (who, moreover, um directly. Many other circumstances lead us of the duke of Brunswick. It is to be hoped that so by virtue of an imperial diploma, is subject to us) to lear, that the flames of war will become general capital and decifive a stroke will be the means of rebel against the sublime Porte; she afterwards inof preventing a war. Such a conduct recals to our troduced Russian troops into the place of Teflis, and Yellerday a meeting of American merchants, minds the brilliant actions of the hereditary gained over that Kan, by which means the railed disturbances in Georgia and its frontiers, and when called upon to defilt. the returned a negative answer. committee and their friends, being present. The The courier extraordinary which arrived here the In the articles of the peace, clear stipulations had port of the committee was read and confirmed. 2d instant, with dispatches from baron Herbert, like- been made for the exportation of salt in favour of the inhabitants of Oczakow, which had been affigned to and levying a duty of one per cent. in lieu of fiding here, and containing an account of what paf- them for a great length of time; yet the Russians, on it feemed to be the general sense of the com- sed the 26th at Constantinople. The report on this by various vexations, have prevented the people of y, that it was better to let the business stand up- occasion at first was, that the Venetian ambassador the frontiers from exporting the falt, and when re-

It is confidently reported, that government have it but it was without foundation. Another report is Their conful has seduced the Hospondar of Molcontemplation to pass a law for the better security since spread, much more probable, that the Porte in davia, who in our state holds the rank of prince; persons who place large sums in the hands of an express manner requires the imperial internuncio and when, after his escape directed the consul, it