NOVEMBER SESSION, Seventeen Hundred and Eighty-Eight.

St. JOHN's COLLEGE.

HE visitors and governors of St. John's College having, on the 10th of May, 1786, authorised Samuel Chase, Nicholas Carroll and Alexander Contee Hanson, or any two of them, to appoint a person to collect the money, then or thereafter to be subscribed: we, the said Nicholas Carroll and Alexander Contee Hanson, did accordingly, soon after, appoint Archibald Golder, of the city of Annapolis. Of this appointment the public was duly notified. The collector advertised times and places for his attendance in several counties. He attended agreeably to his notice, and moreover made personal application to many of the subscribers. But, although the stipulated periods of payment have long lince elapted, not more than r 500l. out of 11,024l. have been paid.

We have this day renewed our agreement with the collector. Subscribers who have not yet paid their first third, are requested, without delay, to pay the same, and such further part, as they shall think proper, to the said Archibald Golder, or to Benjamin Harwood, treasurer. They will be called on, within a reasonable time, to make the second and third payments, the last of which was due on the 1st of June," 1787.—All legal methods of compulsion would be as disagreeable to the visitors as disgraceful to subscribers. But it is the indispensable duty of trustees to adopt such modes of exacting payment, as shall be found necessar ry, or expedient.

The building of the college was projected, and begun on a plan, in some measure, proportioned to its. nominal funds. For a considerable length of time, it has been suspended, for want of money.- The gentlemen who subscribed liberally, and paid with punctuality, had a right to expect, in the course of four years. that the work would be complete, and the femingry beginning to flourish. They cannot but remember the generous patriotic ardor, with which the institution was commenced. They have sustained an injury from all those whose neglect or failure has retarded its progress; and, for their fatisfaction, as well as for other purposes, a list of Subscribers names, with the sums subscribed, and the sums paid, will probably be published as foon as conveniently may be, after the 12th day of May next.

At a meeting of the vifitors and governors, on the 5th of July, 1786, the second Tuesdays in February, May, August and Nevember, were appointed for their quarterly meetings. A sufficient number hath not fince that period, been convened, although extraordinary meetings have been requested, by public advertisement and personal solicitation. As the repeated disappointments of those who have repaired to Annapolis, at their own expence, for the fole purpose of meeting the vifitors, may perhaps, without some particular notice, prevent their attendance, at the next regular stated meeting, we take the liberty of most earnestly entreating every gentleman, who has accepted the trust of a visitor and governor of St. John's College, to attend on the second Tuesday of May next. As the general court will be held on that day, we presume no time more convenient can be mentioned.

It is perhaps proper to inform the public, that the number of vilitors cannot exceed twenty-four, that not less than nine can form the corporation; that it has nea ver exceeded eleven; that by death it is reduced to ten; that not less than seven have authority to act; and that only two, at this time, refide at Annapolis. It is almost needless to add, that matters of the greatest importance await their consideration. It is much to be wished, that the number were completed or increased. Whether this object may not be attained, provided nine shall be convened, will be debated at their next meeting; and we hope that, if any gentleman be difpoled to refign, he will at least bestow his endeavours, that the body may be first enabled to supply his place.
