ROMULUS,

BRIGHT bay, nearly fixteen hands high, remarkably strong, handsome and active, will stand this feason at Mount Stewart, near South river church, and cover mares at three pounds, and five shillings to the groom. ROMULUS was got by Sweeper, his dam by the imported Ranger, his grand-dam by Ariel, his great-grand-dam by Othello, out of an imported mare. Good pasturage will be provided for mares at 3/9 per week, but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes. JOLLY ROGER,

I TILL cover, from the 25th of April to the last of the season, at SQUIRREL NECK, Rhode river, the feat of Mr. JAMES CARROLL, at two barrels of corn, to be brought with the mare, or three dollars cash. JOLLY ROGER is a fine shining black, full fifteen hands high, remarkably well and stout made, and is, perhaps, as good a draught horse as any in the state, his blood is between the DRAY and TOM; his dam was a TOM, and his fire the noted horse Stirling, bred by H. D. Gough, Esquire. Mares from ten miles and upwards distant will be pastured grais, but entirely at the risk of the several proprietors, as the owner of the horse will be answerable for no escapes or accidents.

RICHARD DARNALL.

April 12, 1789.

HE visitors and governors of St. John's College having, on the 10th of May, 1786, authorited Samuel Chase, Nicholas Carroll and Alexander Con. tee Hanson, or any two of them, to appoint a person to collect the money, then or thereafter to be ful. scribed: we, the faid Nicholas Carroll and Alexander Contee Hanson, did accordingly, soon after, appoint Archibald Golder, of the city of Annapolis, Of this appointment the public was duly notified. The col. lector advertised times and places for his attendance in several counties. He attended agreeably to his notice and moreover made personal application to many the subscribers. But, although the stipulated period of payment have long fince elapsed, not more the 1500l. out of 11,024l. have been paid.

We have this day renewed our agreement with the collector. Subscribers who have not yet paid their first third, are requested, without delay, to pay the fame, and fuch further part, as they shall think pm per, to the faid Archibald Golder, or to Benjamin Harwood, treasurer. They will be called on, within a reasonable time, to make the second and third na ments, the last of which was due on the 1st of lune 1787.—All legal methods of compulsion would be as disagreeable to the visitors as disgraceful to subscriber But it is the indispensable duty of trustees to adopt such modes of exacting payment, as shall be found necessa. ry, or expedient.

The building of the college was projected, and begun on a plan, in some measure, proportioned to its nominal funds. For a confiderable length of time, it has been fuspended, for want of money .- The gentle. men who subscribed liberally, and paid with punctur. lity, had a right to expect, in the course of four years. that the work would be complete, and the seminary beginning to flourish. They cannot but remember the generous patriotic ardor, with which the institution was commenced. They have fustained an injury from all those whose neglect or failure has retarded its progress; and, for their faciofaction, as well as for other purposes, a list of subscribers names, with the sums sub. scribed, and the sums paid, will probably be publish. ed as soon as conveniently may be, after the 12th day of May next.

At a meeting of the vifitors and governors, on the 5th of July, 1786, the second Tuesdays in February, May, August and Nevember, were appointed for their quarterly meetings. A sufficient number hath not, since that period, been convened, although extraordinary meetings have been requested, by public advertisement and personal solicitation. As the repeated disappointments of those who have repaired to Annapolis, at their own expence, for the sole purpose of meeting the visitors, may perhaps, without some particular notice, prevent their attendance, at the next regular stated meeting, we take the liberty of most earnestly entreating every gentleman, who has accepted the trust of a visitor and governor of St. John's College, to attend on the second Tuesday of May next. As the general court will be held on that day, we presume no time more convenient can be mentioned.

It is perhaps proper to inform the public, that the number of visitors cannot exceed twenty-four, that not less than nine can form the corporation; that it has never exceeded eleven; that by death it is reduced to ten; that not less than seven have authority to act; and that only two, at this time, refide at Annapolis. It is almost needless to add, that matters of the greatest importance await their confideration. It is much to be wished, that the number were completed or increased. Whether this object may not be attained, provided nine shall be convened, will be debated at their next meeting; and we hope that, if any gentleman be disposed to resign, he will at least bestow his endeavours, that the body may be first enabled to supply his place.

NICHOLAS CARROLL, ALEXANDER CONTEE HANSON. Annapolis, February 9, 1789. /2

I) AN away on Saturday the 11th instant, a NE-GRO MAN, named NEHEMIAH, a very black fellow, down look, battle hammed, under fix feet high, a great drunkard, and plays on the violin tolerably well; it is uncertain what cloaths he took with him, only a great coat of Bath coating, and of 2 dark gray colour; he rode off a small bay horse, with a sprig tail, with his two hind feet white up to the fetlock, and a star in his forehead. Whoever secures the said sellow, so that I get him again, shall be paid TEN DOLLARS, and for the horse only, five dollars.
