The TRUSTEES of the Lower-Marlborough Academy,

TEG leave to inform the public, that the seminary, Inder their direction, has been for some months revived. This institution was founded by an act of the legislature several years prior to the commencement of the late war, and foon became extensively afeful, but did not escape the fate of almost every other feat of learning during the times of horror and distress-They have however at length collected the scattered finances, and procured a tutor, a Mr. McCormun; this gentleman was highly recommended by Dr. Davidson, of Philadelphia college, and many other gentlemen of diltinguished characters, not only for his literary acquirements, but also for his rectifude of conduct; and the trullecs with propriety affert, that this gentleman has done honour to recommendations, this being proved by the progress made by his pupils, the strict moral conduct which he invariably adheres to, and the zealous attention to his duty.

In this academy the LATIN and GREEK Languages are taught after the methods practited in the Philadelphia college, for Four Guineas per annum, and genteel board may be had within one mile for twenty pounds currency. This academy is within one mile and a quarter of the town of Lower-Marlborough, fituated on a dry and healthy spot, and retired, that the youth will not be liable to have their attention drawn off by a variety and excess of amusements.
