- Kent county, September 18, 1791. HIS is to give notice to all whom it may concern, that, from a variety of causes and misfortunes which have befallen me, I am rendered incapable of paying my debts; I rherefore intend to petition the next general affembly of this state to be released and discharged from the payment of my debts, whether in my own name, or the name of Thomas Smyth and Sons, upon delivering up all my property for the benefit of my creditors. THOMAS SMYTH.

NOTICE is hereby given,

HAT application will be made to the general assembly, at their session in November next, for an act to subject the lands within the city of Washington, in the territory of Columbia, belonging to infants, persons insane or absent, or who will not agree to the same terms as the proprietors in general have, by agreement, subjected their lands to within the same city, instead of the common mode of condemnation on a valuation by jury. September 9, 1791.

ARUNDEL COUNTY.

Gentlemen, TAVING been solicited by the people of Elk-Ridge, and the upper part of the county, to stand as a candidate to serve in the next general assembly of this state, in order, if possible, to obtain a more equal and fair representation, I, with reluctance, consented thereto, and entered upon the business-I now find there is a report spread (I apprehend by some envious person or persons to prevent my heing elected.) that if I should be elected, 'tis my intention to join the Baltimore people, and vote for the removal of the feat of government to Baltimore-town -In order to obviate any doubts that may arise from this report, I take this public method of affuring the gentlemen of this county, that I never had a thought or intention to vote for the removal of the feat of goother place. I am of opinion that the business of the than in any great trading town or city.
